

East-West Agreement On Berlin Beginning To Appear

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The rough outline of a possible East-West agreement to end the Berlin crisis is beginning to appear in official statements, including President John F. Kennedy's speech to the United Nations.

This development indicated today, as some Western diplomats are saying privately, that sooner or later the Soviet Union and the Allied powers will agree on a compromise formula for opening negotiations to see whether a deal is possible.

What is highly uncertain is whether the formula can be worked out in Western diplomatic talks now under way with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. The talks could produce accord in the next few days if Premier Nikita Khrushchev is ready to ease the tensions over Berlin a bit. If he is not, the current efforts of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home will end in failure.

Should these preliminary discussions collapse, however, the prospect is that some new effort to arrange negotiations will be undertaken later in the fall. Western leaders seem privately convinced of this because the alternative to a Berlin settlement may well be a nuclear war.

Kennedy told the United Nations yesterday the Western powers are determined to defend West Berlin "by whatever means are forced upon them." But he expressed confidence that "firmness and reason" can lead to a peaceful solution.

The president stopped short of saying what kind of solution might be acceptable to the United States and its Allies. Kennedy said the United States recognized that Germany could be kept divided by troops and tanks. His guarded statement implied acceptance indefinitely of the existing division of Germany. Such acceptance could lead to Western accommodation to Communist authority in East Germany.

Khrushchev long has demanded that the Western powers recognize the East German Communist regime. The implications of what Kennedy said stop far short of full recognition, but the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany have talked over privately the possibility of accepting the fact of Red rule in East Germany.

Kennedy said he believed an agreement could be worked out that would protect "the freedom of West Berlin and Allied presence and access." This comes close to the crux of the matter because Khrushchev clearly wants Allied troops withdrawn. But he also has talked a great deal about guaranteeing West Berlin as a "free city" and also guaranteeing access. The gap between his position and Kennedy's could be a subject of negotiation, diplomats say, though he would have to accept the presence of Western troops.

LITTLE HOPE SEEN OF SOFT RUSS STAND
Tough Kennedy Answer Expected From Gromyko

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today rejected the U.S. disarmament proposal calling for control and inspection at all stages.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. delegates saw little hope today that the Soviet Union will soften its position in replying to President John F. Kennedy's call for new negotiations on disarmament and the Berlin crisis.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko is expected to hold fast to the Kremlin's overall stand on these and other international issues when he makes his policy statement before the 99-nation General Assembly.

Kennedy's challenge to the Soviet Union to join in a race for peace leading to full disarmament made no visible imprint on the Communist bloc members who sat silently while the rest of the hall applauded.

RUSS BROADCAST
Radio Moscow asserted today the president's disarmament proposals to the U.N. General Assembly are unsatisfactory.

In a home service, Russian-language broadcast, the radio declared: "The U.S. program makes no provision for the abolition of arms and armed forces, for the banning of nuclear and other forms of weapons of mass extermination, or for the liquidation of military bases on other people's territory."

The broadcast said that, as outlined by Kennedy, "the main emphasis is laid on the discontinuance of the production of fissionable materials and on control over the launching of devices into cosmic space."

OTHER QUESTIONS
"As is known," it added, "these measures alone are in no way capable of guaranteeing general and complete disarmament."

"Kennedy did not say a word about the attitude of the U.S.A. to such vitally urgent questions as the struggle of the Algerian people for independence, the national liberation struggle of the peoples of Angola or the situation in Southwest Africa."

Kennedy's remarks on the subject of Germany and Berlin were dismissed in a single sentence—"The president devoted considerable attention to the German problem and, in particular, to the question of West Berlin."

SPEEDIER POWER FOR SAN RAFAEL

The sidewalk on San Rafael's Fourth Street between Court and A streets will look like this for about another 10 days while Pacific Gas and Electric Co. installs additional underground conductors. Leonard O. Robertson, PG&E electrical superintendent, said the added conductors would speed service in the event of a power failure in the San Rafael area. The conductors will be in service by the end of October, Robertson said. (Independent-Journal photo)

Robert I. McCarthy said today it is "entirely probable" he will announce his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor after the first of next year.

Simpson Will Retire; Hall, Hollis In Race?
Two From Marin Won't Say Yes Or No — But

Roy E. Simpson today announced he will not seek reelection next year as state superintendent of public instruction, and the possibility appeared that two Marin educators may seek the post.

Virgil S. Hollis, Marin County superintendent, who has said for some time that he might be a candidate for state superintendent, said today he has not made up his mind but "will have an announcement to make in the next few weeks."

Wallace W. Hall, former Marin County superintendent who was named by Simpson last week as head of a new state division of higher education, said:

NEW ASSIGNMENT
"I have a new assignment as chief of the division of higher education. It certainly in days and weeks ahead will take all my time to fulfill as I think it should be fulfilled, and as I know the people expect me to fulfill it."

"However, if there is a feeling on the part of professional people and the public of the state that I should consider running for state superintendent, I certainly will give consideration to it. I'm not going to close the door."

Hall was presiding at a meeting of the State Department of Education professional staff in Sacramento this morning at which Simpson announced he would not be a candidate.

MAKING SPEECH
Hollis was in Los Angeles County. He went to Southern California yesterday for a series of speeches this week on communism in the schools. His trip had been regarded in some quarters as unofficial opening of his campaign.

Hollis was elected county superintendent in 1958, after Hall resigned to accept appointment as assistant state superintendent.

Simpson, 68, said he intends to finish out his term, precluding Gov. Edmund G. Brown from naming a successor. Simpson is a Republican.

In announcing his retirement at the end of the term, he urged that voters choose someone for the $20,000-a-year job who is "capable of providing the dynamic leadership demanded by the times."

Simpson has served 16 years in the office, first appointed by Gov. Earl Warren then elected three times.

Blair Moves For His Own Recall Election Dec. 5

Says He Did It To Save Embarrassment

By RANDALL GOULD

County Supervisor J. Walter Blair yesterday moved a resolution providing for his own recall election Dec. 5. "I did it to save embarrassment for the others," he later explained.

The motion, adopted unanimously, followed an effort by one of Blair's supporters to persuade the Marin County Board of Supervisors to shelve the whole matter, and a ruling by the county counsel that the election was mandatory.

Blair kept an unperturbed aspect, and smiled in taking on himself the responsibility for moving a resolution unprecedented in Marin County history.

County Clerk George S. Jones spoke up after a recess to say that sufficient petition signatures had been validated.

"It appears the next thing is to set a date," said Chairman William D. Fusselman.

"I am suggesting Dec. 5," said Jones as Mrs. Evelyn McDougall of Mill Valley, a director of the Marin Taxpayers Assn., arose from the audience to protest the whole proceeding.

"Malfeasance in office is one thing, but flimsy excuses as in this case is another. . . . It is very difficult to recall anybody who has tried to do his best as Mr. Blair has," said Mrs. McDougall.

"Petitions presented in the past have been ignored," she continued.

In the present instance, said County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, "the board has no control over the clerk certifies to sufficient signatures."

Jones then read a McGuire letter covering various legal aspects, including the point that nomination papers for candidates to succeed Blair if the recall carries must be signed by not less than 5 or more than 6 per cent of the entire vote cast in the district at the preceding general election.

Candidates must deliver their papers to the county clerk not less than 45 days before the election, the letter said. This would make Oct. 20 the deadline for petitions of candidacy.

After Fusselman suddenly burst out angrily because copies had not been provided for the board, Jones said "We need a motion."

"Anybody can move," said Fusselman.

There was a pause. Finally Supervisor Walter R. Castro hesitantly started "Then I will—" but was interrupted by Blair.

"I think that in view of the unique situation," said Blair

Robert McCarthy May Seek Governorship

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Robert I. McCarthy said today it is "entirely probable" he will announce his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor after the first of next year.

McCarthy, who resigned his post as director of the Department of Motor Vehicles after an angry spat last month with Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown, told a news conference:

"I haven't made a final decision but I'm thinking very seriously about it."

(Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy, Robert McCarthy's younger brother and already an announced candidate for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket, declined comment.)

"I have not made one comment about Robert I. McCarthy throughout this whole affair and added I do not intend to until the right time comes. This is not it," he said.)

Robert McCarthy, a 40-year-old attorney and former state senator from San Francisco, was critical of both Brown and Richard M. Nixon who is expected to reveal tomorrow whether he will seek the governorship.

"Brown is indecisive, he just doesn't want to make hard decisions," McCarthy said.

As for Nixon, McCarthy had this to say:

"If he announces he is running for governor, he isn't interested one iota in the welfare of the people of California but only how quickly he can use the office of governor to vault into the White House."

Sunny Hills Suggests Plan To Avoid Condemnation

Sunny Hills Home, which is resisting a condemnation move by San Anselmo School District, has come out with a counter-suggestion, attorney Leland H. Jordan disclosed today.

Jordan said Sunny Hills suggests that the school use property behind Isabel Cook School, including the playground at Memorial Park, the American Legion property including the Log Cabin site, and some private property in the area. This would provide a total area of 14.6 acres including the Isabel Cook School property, said Jordan.

"As we see it," said Jordan, "this would give the school an adequate site for another school, without interfering with Sunny Hills."

Jordan reported that this suggestion was made by Sunny Hills' land planner, Sydney Williams, who met with the school architect Eugene Crawford and school board member John Wagstaff last Friday.

Next regular meeting of the San Anselmo School District board is 8 p.m. Oct. 10.

House-Senate Group Compromise On Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House-Senate negotiators agreed today to give President John F. Kennedy slightly less than four billion dollars for his foreign-aid program, removing the biggest remaining roadblock to an early adjournment of Congress.

The compromise ended a week-long struggle to reconcile differences between a House-passed bill carrying 3.6 billion dollars and a 4.2-billion-dollar Senate bill. Key lawmakers said the compromise bill would be called up for House approval later today.

The Senate inched nearer adjournment today by opening debate on a billion-dollar supplemental appropriations bill to finance a variety of government activities.

Legislative leaders saw little hope of winding up the first session of the 87th Congress before tomorrow.

The House approved a compromise measure carrying $3,908,880,980 to finance public works projects throughout the nation.

President Signs Arms Agency Bill

NEW YORK (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy today put the new U.S. disarmament program into formal action by announcing his selection of William C. Foster, a Republican and former boss of the foreign-aid program, to head the new arms control and disarmament agency created by Congress.

The chief executive, shortly before leaving New York for a week's holiday at Newport, R.I., signed a bill setting up the agency which will coordinate all American disarmament efforts and follow through on the broad step-by-step disarmament plan he presented to the United Nations yesterday.

Foster was present as Kennedy signed the measure.

The suit, filed yesterday, alleged negligence, malpractice, wrongful death and assault and battery. It was filed on behalf of Chandler's children and his estate.

Chandler, 42, underwent surgery at Culver City Hospital May 13 for a slipped spinal disc.

A few days later he suffered severe internal bleeding and was given 55 pints of blood. He rallied and seemed headed for recovery, but suffered a relapse and died June 17.

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Masked gunmen pulled off the largest jewel robbery of the summer on the Riviera yesterday. Estimates of the loot ranged from $500,000 to more than twice that.

Three robbers, dressed in blue jeans and wearing scarves across their faces, entered the Clerc jewelry shop opposite the Monte Carlo Casino in the morning, when most residents of the neighborhood were sleeping. They forced an elderly saleswoman, alone in the store, to lie on the floor and scooped jewels from display cases.

FROM AMERICAN EDITOR

Pravda Publishes Article About President Kennedy

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today printed a two-column article about President John F. Kennedy—at the invitation of the New York Post.

The article was written by the Post's editor, James Wechsler, who pointed out that almost everything about Premier Nikita Khrushchev is printed in U.S. newspapers but little about Kennedy appears in Soviet newspapers.

In his article Wechsler invited the Communist party newspaper Pravda and the government newspaper Izvestia to print the article, which he called a brief analysis of the position of the President. Pravda reported it was printing it in full.

Wechsler wrote that Kennedy has no illusions about victory in a nuclear war, but if the worst happened he would not allow the United States to accept defeat.

Nevertheless, he said the president was determined to try to work out solutions of existing problems even knowing that any solution will shower blame on him as a conciliator. He said the president thought anything could be negotiated except the dignity of a free people.

Wechsler said the president was too ready to accept the published word as the voice of the people. Further, he added, the president acted too quickly in response to pressure from inside the country.

That, he said, explained Kennedy's decision to renew nuclear tests soon after the Russians resumed them.

He added that he had no doubts of the sincerity or force of Kennedy's striving for a reasonable settlement in a world which has been balancing on the brink for so long.

That ended the portion from the Post article. This is the first such appraisal of the president in recent memory printed in the Soviet Union. Most articles are critical, not analytical.

JCS United On Use Of Atom Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon sources said today the Joint Chiefs of Staff are united in a belief that nuclear weapons should be used if such a step becomes necessary in any military clash with the Soviet Union over Berlin.

These sources said the uniformed chiefs of the Army, Navy and Air Force long have been agreed with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on this.

The White House, unlike the Kremlin, has not been rattling nuclear weapons during the Berlin crisis. Premier Nikita Khrushchev set off outcries of "nuclear blackmail" and "terror tactics" when he talked recently of having the ability to develop a superbomb and bragged that he had the missile power to deliver it to any point on the globe.

But in commenting on the Berlin crisis during his United Nations address yesterday, President John F. Kennedy declared every nation should know "the United States has both the will and the weapons to join free men in standing up to their responsibilities."

On the point of willingness to use the U.S. weapons stockpile, the president in effect was replying to criticism in a Senate speech last week by Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.). She said the Kennedy administration, in building up U.S. conventional forces, has practically told the Russians "we do not have the will to use nuclear power against them."

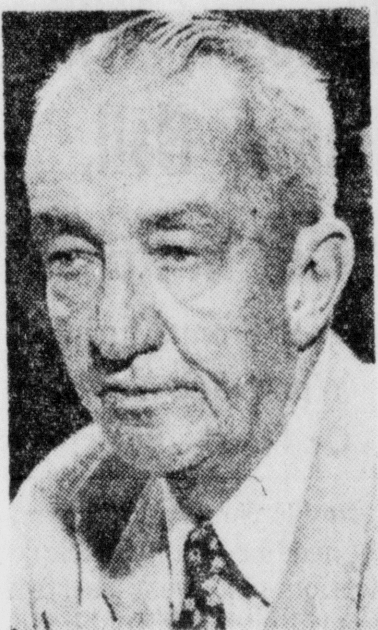

Adenauer Tells Of Retirement — Gives No Date

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer announced on British television last night that he plans to retire. But his statement made no impression on his political opponents today because he failed to say when.

The 85-year-old West German leader told a British television audience he had no intention of remaining chancellor for another four years.

"I've had enough," he said. This is nothing new. He told his Christian Democratic party recently he would relinquish his office "after a certain time" so that his successor could get used to his job before the next elections in 1965.

Government officials said Adenauer's remarks were recorded last Saturday for the program.

GEN. EICHELBERGER
Long service

Eichelberger, Army Leader, Dies At 75

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP)—Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, 75, commander of the U.S. Eighth Army in the Pacific in World War II and former superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., died here early today.

Eichelberger, who guided the "Amphibious Eighth" through the long Philippines campaign and later commanded Allied occupation forces in Japan, was hospitalized last Friday. He underwent surgery yesterday.

Eichelberger had served as secretary of the general staff of two chiefs of staff of the U.S. Army—Douglas MacArthur and Malin Craig. He was graduated from West Point in 1909.

Eichelberger was given command of the Eighth Army in the Pacific Sept. 7, 1944. The Eighth subsequently led the Pacific island fighting from Australia to Tokyo.

The Eighth was nicknamed "The Amphibious Eighth" on after Eichelberger led it on 52 amphibious landings in the Philippine Islands campaign alone.

Because of the record of the Eighth Gen. Douglas MacArthur selected it for the invasion of Japan and Eichelberger commanded occupation forces in Japan from 1945 to 1948.

On the first landing in Japan, Eichelberger said: "I got up at daybreak and was on the first plane to land at Atsugi Air Field, Aug. 30, 1945. It was quite a thing, all right. We didn't know what we'd find on the ground."

"Two hours later, I met MacArthur's plane. As we rode along in the jeep, I had a grenade on the seat between us, and MacArthur was wearing a pistol. That was the first time I ever saw him wearing a weapon."

President's Speech Draws Warm Praise

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
President John F. Kennedy's speech to the United Nations drew warm praise today from America's friends and allies. First Communist reaction was hostile.

The first significant neutralist comment came from Prince Norodom Sihanouk, chief of state of Cambodia. He visited Kennedy at his New York hotel and told newsmen that Cambodia adopts the same position toward disarmament as Kennedy in his speech. "With controls," he stressed.

NO COMMENT

Moscow radio and the Soviet news agency Tass reported without comment that the President had addressed the General Assembly and "dwelt on the activity of the United Nations, the question of disarmament, the so-called Berlin crisis, and the question of colonialism."

The East German news agency ADN reported at length on the portions dealing with Germany and Berlin, accusing Kennedy of deliberately distorting the Soviet position.

Chinese Communist reaction appeared in the Ta Kung Pao of Hong Kong, a Red newspaper which follows Peiping's line. It accused Kennedy of mouthings "empty propaganda phrases."

A British Foreign Office statement said the plan "represents a realistic and practicable basis for negotiations."

Non-Communist Asians reacted warmly and with praise. Newspapers everywhere outside of mainland China gave it top play.

ENTHUSIASTIC

The address was received enthusiastically in Nationalist China where a Foreign Office spokesman said Kennedy's challenge "will provide the best test possible to determine whether the Soviet Union is willing to abandon its aggressive, expansionist policy."

The Japanese Foreign Ministry called the speech "a welcome reaffirmation of the United States position on world problems." The Japanese were pleased with Kennedy's proposals for an end to nuclear tests and for general disarmament.

There are about 355,000 blind people in the United States.

Union Seeks Speedy Ford Settlement

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers Union sought a speedy settlement with Ford Motor Co. today, after winding up the last of its local differences with General Motors Corp.

Sources close to the bargaining table said UAW President Walter P. Reuther hoped to complete a new Ford contract by Thursday.

Once Ford is settled the UAW will turn to Chrysler.

A vital Fisher Body stamping plant at West Mifflin, Pa., went back to work last night, ending two weeks of crippling local strikes at General Motors.

Reuther, assured of the final G.M. settlement, made his first personal appearance at Ford Monday since opening day formalities and received from the company an offer paralleling the G.M. settlement.

"We disagree on details," Reuther said.

The UAW leader obviously hoped to persuade Ford to sweeten the G.M. agreement, particularly in the area of pensions, insurance and supplemental unemployment benefits.

Special subcommittees were set up on these three points and met last night after full bargaining sessions were recessed.

Progress, if any, was cloaked in a newly invoked news blackout on negotiations. Ford proposed such a blackout when talks opened June 29, but the union had declined to go along until yesterday.

The revised economic offer made by Ford was virtually identical with the General Motors settlement.

CASTRO-SOVIET 'PLOT' REVEALED

Ex-Cuban Diplomat Tells Of Plans For Assault Against Argentina

MIAMI (UPI)—A Cuban ex-diplomat who came here as a refugee brought with him purported evidence of a vast Soviet-Castroite plot against the Government of Argentina.

Ex-Consul Vitalio de la Torre left last night for Washington, presumably to report to U.S. authorities. This correspondent was allowed to examine the two bulky bundles of papers de la Torre brought with him when he fled from the Castroite embassy in Buenos Aires.

The Cuban exploit reminded some observers here of code clerk Igor Gouzenko's escape from the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa in 1946 with the files that exposed the Russian spy network in Canada.

The 170-odd documents said to have been extracted from embassy files by de la Torre purport to show that the Castro regime is preparing a multi-front assault on President Arturo Frondizi's Argentine administration.

The papers include plans for propaganda, labor agitation, "smear" campaigns to discredit anti-Communist leaders, spy-work and direct attack through Communist indoctrination of chosen Argentines and the training of anti-government guerrilla bands.

The papers indicate the Soviet Embassy in Buenos Aires and the Russian news agency Tass were aiding the plot.

One phase of the plan was said to provide for "control of information" through such means as sabotage of anti-Communist newspapers, magazines and radio-TV stations.

The ultimate object of the conspiracy was said to be the seizure of Argentina as a base for operations against neighboring countries such as Paraguay and Brazil.

U.S. Won't Obstruct Admission Of Outer Mongolia To The U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—The United States said today it "will not obstruct" the admission of Communist Outer Mongolia to the United Nations. Russia indicated that it will again veto the application of Mauritania unless Outer Mongolia is recommended by the security council for election by the General Assembly.

After the council refused to take up Outer Mongolia's application before considering that of Mauritania, Russia voted against even putting the Mauritanian bid on the agenda.

The council unanimously recommended Sierra Leone to become the 100th member of the United Nations.

It deferred action on Mauritania and Outer Mongolia until a meeting tonight.

Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson did not make clear to the security council whether the United States would vote to recommend Outer Mongolia for membership or abstain in the vote.

A U.S. abstention could be decisive on the Mongolian question. Seven abstentions—technically not negative votes—could kill Outer Mongolia's application.

The issue was regarded as a preliminary skirmish in Russia's diplomatic battle to seat Communist China in the assembly. If Outer Mongolia's application is rejected, Soviet Ambassador Valerian A. Zorin served notice that a veto of Mauritania's bid was sure to follow.

Such a development was expected to result in a heavy African vote against National China—which was reported ready to veto Outer Mongolia's application as a last resort—when the question of the Chinese seat comes before the assembly later in the session.

Way Cleared By Episcopal For Church Merger Talks

DETROIT (AP)—Wheels were in motion today for securing one official denominational checkup on operations of the National Council of Churches.

Passed overwhelmingly by the Episcopal House of Deputies, the plan now goes before the church's House of Bishops.

At the same time the two-chamber church congress gave its full blessings to an attempt to unite a broad swath of America's organizationally divided Christianity.

The final approval came when the bishops yesterday approved minor amendments in the reunion-seeking project that had been tacked on by the law-clerical branch, the House of Deputies.

However, they soundly rebuffed demands that their church quit the council.

They also overwhelmingly rejected efforts to block the council from issuing statements about the Christian implications of various social, economic and political issues.

The council, the country's chief agency of interdenominational cooperation, includes representatives of 33 Protestant, Orthodox and non-Roman Catholic denominations with about 40 million members.

When Stevenson insisted that Mauritania retain its place on the agenda ahead of Outer Mongolia, Zorin angrily accused the United States of "maneuvering" to keep the mountainous Asian country out of the assembly.

Stevenson reported that he had not even discussed the U.S. view on Outer Mongolia and added: "It may be of some interest to Mr. Zorin that we will not obstruct the membership of Outer Mongolia."

Delegates still discussed President John F. Kennedy's "peace race" speech to the assembly yesterday.

Reds Trying 4 For Smuggling Of Refugees

BERLIN (AP)—The Communists have begun the trial of two Americans, a Briton and a Dutchman on charges of attempting to smuggle three women out of East Berlin, a Western Allied source said today. This informant said the hearing opened yesterday.

Western reporters were not invited and the official East German news agency ADN so far has not reported it.

The Americans are Victor Searles Pankey and Gilbert Page Ferrey, both 20, of Tustin, Calif.

The Briton is Bernard Joseph Collett, 30, and the Dutchman Henri Johannes Petrus Pierrot, 55.

Arrest of the four was announced by the East Germans Sept. 13. Pankey and Ferrey were alleged to have tried to smuggle a girl through the Communist controls in the luggage compartment of their car. Collett was declared to have tried to smuggle a woman in his station wagon. Pierrot was accused of trying to get a woman out on his wife's passport.

Ferrey had been attending summer school in Europe and was about to return to California.

ONE-TENTH PER CENT Plentiful Fresh Foods Trim Cost Of Living

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost of living dipped one-tenth of one per cent in August, the Labor Department announced today, mainly because of plentiful fresh foods at lower cost.

The department said consumer prices have risen one-half of one per cent in the first eight months of this year, "less than during any comparable period since 1955."

This stability was achieved in spite of July's jump of nearly one-half of one per cent which carried the index to a record of 128.1 per cent of the 1947-49 average, used as a base. The downward movement last month brought the level to 128 per cent.

That meant that the typical assortment of goods and services making up the living costs of the average city family cost 28 per cent more in August than in the period immediately after World War II.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the net advance for this year stemmed mainly from steady increases in the cost of used cars and the price of various services including rents, medical care, entertainment costs and public transportation.

Clague predicted the index will show a rise for September, for two reasons—an increase in used car prices is expected before the arrival of new models on the market, and the introduction of fall clothing lines will boost the apparel index following the late season summer clearance sales.

October's index normally would rise, Clague said, because of new-car models selling at or near their list prices. November and December may bring a downward movement as meat prices fall.

Despite the August living costs decline, about 120,000 workers in aircraft and missile plants and small metal-working firms will get cost-of-living pay boosts under wage contracts tied to quarterly changes in the consumer price index. The quarterly index was up.

Some 100,000 employees of North American, Lockheed and Martin aircraft companies will get a cent hourly increases. About 20,000 workers of Republic Aircraft will receive two cents.

Daughter Of Ingrid Splits With Mate

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Textile heir Fuller E. Callaway III confirmed yesterday that his pretty wife, daughter of film star Ingrid Bergman, has left him.

Friends of the couple said Mrs. Callaway, the former Jenny Ann Lindstrom, wants a divorce and plans to study drama at Stanford University.

Callaway, 29, said she moved out of his San Francisco apartment and was setting up her own in Menlo Park.

Mrs. Callaway, 22, was a student at Mills College in Oakland when she married the heir to a Georgia textile fortune, in February 1960.

Jenny Ann, slender, green-eyed and poised, bears a striking resemblance to her mother.

Friends of the young couple said Mrs. Callaway wanted a divorce. Callaway said he didn't know whether she did or not.

Jenny Ann had known Callaway two years when they suddenly decided to get married—while driving from Sun Valley, Ida., to San Francisco.

They were married in the police radio room of the Elko, Nev., county jail—the first place they could find witnesses.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria by the P-TA hospitality committee.

Here tomorrow—a great new exclusive from Buick

ADVANCED THRUST

Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHAT IT DOES—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its 3/4-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!

Mill Valley Schools Accept Room Plans

Working drawings for Alto, Edna Maguire and Marin Terrace school classroom additions were accepted by Mill Valley School District trustees last night, subject to review.

Drawings for Old Mill and Tamalpais Valley school additions, incomplete, will come before the board for approval Oct. 23.

Planners Get Hanna Park Request

A new application for rezoning Hanna Industrial Park for heavy industry was given the Novato Planning Commission last night.

The commission had scheduled a hearing on zoning the area to light industry, but the second application killed that hearing. A hearing on the new application will be held on Nov. 25, the planners decided.

The area lies north of the Ignacio Wye between Highway 101 and the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, extending north almost to Novato Creek.

The commission postponed until Oct. 9, action on a tentative map of Beverly Knolls No. 2, waiting for a survey by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. on its proposed new high line over the hill on that property.

Legion Endorses Fulltime Civil Defense Chief

A compromise Marin County civil defense plan was endorsed last night by American Legion posts of San Anselmo and Mill Valley.

If also approved by other county Legion posts, the recommendation that the county appoint a full-time civil defense administrator will be sent to the board of supervisors.

Also to be recommended, according to William G. Harrington, chairman of the civil defense committee of the San Anselmo post, will be suggestions "aimed at broadening and expanding disaster preparedness programs in Marin."

These points will not be disclosed, Harrington said, until approval by the other posts.

Almonte Sanitary Directors Named

Robert A. Alexander and Richard J. Dawe were appointed directors of the Almonte Sanitary District last night, Alexander to fill the term of Valerian Skrylov ending in 1964, and Dawe to fill the term of Jerome F. Downs ending in 1962.

Skrylov and Downs resigned last month because of press of personal business.

Dawe, who lives at 248 Morning Sun Avenue, is assistant civil engineer with the Marin County Department of Public Works. Alexander, who lives at 11 Morning Sun Avenue, is assistant business manager and union director of University of California Medical Center, San Francisco.

Drowned Man Is Identified

A sport fisherman who was swept off Rodeo Point in Marin County Saturday was identified as Sgt. Clifford M. Brown Jr., 36, of C Company, U.S. Army Garrison at the Presidio.

A Sixth Army spokesman said the identification was made from witnesses who saw the man fall. The body has not been recovered.

Robert Stewart, 45, of Sebastopol, and George Zibley, 30, of Petaluma, said they saw the man fall off the rocks. Zibley jumped in after the man, and Stewart went in after Zibley. Both men nearly lost their lives in the unsuccessful rescue attempt.

He stood too near the batter. The bat hit him in the face, breaking his nose. He was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Mildred Prince, GOP Leader, Dies

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A prominent Republican civic leader, Mildred Prince, died yesterday of a heart attack suffered while addressing a private luncheon group at the Press and Union League Club.

Mrs. Prince, the wife of former state bar president Eugene M. Prince, was 64.

She was a one-time member of the state's Republican Central Committee and in 1958 was campaign manager in Gov. Goodwin J. Knight's bid for a U.S. Senate seat.

HONESTY PAYS —BUT NOT VERY MUCH

Two 11-year-old Mill Valley boys yesterday returned a lost wallet containing over $2,000 in cash.

W. D. Ellis, manager of the Shoreline Market at 207 Flamingo Drive in Tamalpais Valley reported Roy Hope of 186 Almonte Boulevard and Bill Henke of 263 Cardinal Road found the wallet in the market parking lot and brought it to him.

The owner, Mrs. Evelyn Sibley, a housekeeper whose address was not known, was in the store at the time, Ellis said.

"Here's 50 cents for you boys to divide between you," Mrs. Sibley told Roy and Bill with gratitude.

American Legion Posts To Meet On Consolidation

The Novato and Hamilton Air Force Base posts of the American Legion will hold a consolidation meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall on Machin Avenue, Novato.

Preliminary meetings have been held between officers and members of the two posts on the advisability of consolidating, said Miles W. Ross, post adjutant of Novato Post 708.

The consolidated post would keep the charter of Lloyd Andrews Hamilton Post 540, at the base, which is older and slightly larger. Members of Novato Post 708 would be invited to transfer their membership to Post 540, said John O. Rogers, past commander of Post 708 and J. C. Woods, commander of Post 540.

Marin Indians Go On Warpath?

A man who identified himself as Robert Williams of Woodacre reported an attack by a band of 600 to 1,000 Indians last night.

Williams told sheriff's deputies the Indians charged him while he slept in his pickup truck and stole his tires and wheels and put black powder in his gasoline tank. Then galloped off into the Woodacre hills, said Williams.

By the time Deputy Sheriff William S. Christensen galloped to the rescue in his patrol car, a friend of Williams had taken the victim under tow. "Everything is all right," the friend told the officer. "Mr. Williams just had too much to drink." Case closed.

German Fined For Slander Of General

AUGSBURG, Germany (AP)—Reporter Siegfried Naujocks of the "Overseas Weekly" was convicted by a German court today of slandering Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

The court ordered a fine of 1,200 marks—$300—or 90 days in jail.

After three days of testimony the court ruled that Naujocks, a German citizen, slandered Walker in telling three members of Walker's division last December that the general suffered from a brain tumor and that he had seen a medical report proving it. He never produced such a report in court.

U.S. Army doctors who examined Walker at the time testified no brain tumor was ever found.

The trial was based on a complaint filed by Walker after word of the rain tumor stories reached him.

Naujocks was one of the authors of a report published last April by "Overseas Weekly" in which Walker was accused of distributing material from the controversial John Birch Society in his troop information program.

WILSON

controversies that were to mark his tenure.

Wilson at first balked at demands he sever all connections with General Motors, one of the top defense contractors. But he finally agreed, remarking that he was being forced to take "quite a pay cut."

It cost him more than one million dollars to sell his G.M. stock and he gave up a $600,000-plus salary for the $22,500 defense job.

Another of his famous and controversial remarks came when reporters began asking him questions as he left the White House one day.

"This isn't my dung hill," Wilson said of the White House.

Wilson left the Defense Department in 1957, and since has lived largely in semi-retirement.

Wilson had complained yesterday of suffering from a slight case of indigestion. He had spent the day riding around the plantation in a jeep and putting around his pre-Civil War house.

Wilson was a genius at electrical engineering, graduating from Carnegie Tech at 19. But he made his name in the world as a manager of men.

Upon being named president of General Motors in January 1941, he told an interviewer: "I believed in education; I believed in work and production—to do something always fascinated me, and I always thought it worthwhile to get along with people. I lived at a very favorable time. I saw the country develop in an industrial and productive way."

Wilson ran General Motors for 11 years. Under his leadership the giant automobile company was converted into the world's biggest producer of war material.

With the coming of peace, Wilson returned the company to full-scale auto production in record time.

Wilson was born in Minerva, Ohio, July 18, 1890, and moved to Mineral City, Ohio, when he was 4. His father was principal of the Minerva school and his mother had been a teacher.

He was graduated from high school at 15. After Carnegie Tech he became an apprentice at Westinghouse where in 1912 he designed an automobile starter motor made by that company.

Survivors include his widow, the former Jessie Ann Curtis whom he married in 1912; and six children, three sons and three daughters.

Firemen Rescue Youth On Hill

A teen-ager stranded on a hillside beside the Redwood Highway was rescued by the San Rafael Fire Department last night.

Eric Malmquist, 15, who is staying with his family at the Marin Motel, 4136 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, was perched 250 feet above street level and 50 feet from the crest of a hill directly in back of the motel when firemen arrived.

Loose earth underneath made it impossible for young Malmquist to move without sliding. Firemen lowered a rope and hauled him to safety.

The Malmquists, who have decided to make their home in California, recently arrived in San Rafael from Birch River, Mich.

Nixon's TV Conference Is Disputed

LOS ANGELES (P)—If the Richard M. Nixon news conference tomorrow receives network coverage, television executives can expect a line of applicants for similar time.

Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown and two avowed Republican candidates for the office say they want equal time if the American Broadcasting Co. goes through with plans to televise the conference.

Nixon is expected to announce whether he will run for governor in 1962. The candidates didn't say what they would demand if Nixon announced he is not seeking the nomination.

Brown said yesterday that all gubernatorial candidates should get equal treatment from the network.

Former Lt. Gov. Harold J. Powers, Republican, sent telegrams to the FCC and ABC news chief James Hagerty saying he would demand equal time.

Powers claimed that Republican "kingmakers" are "throwing their weight and their bankrolls" behind Nixon to give him a clear path to the governorship in 1962 and the White House in 1964.

Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, Republican, said he would like a "free half hour."

Hagerty said ABC believes the conference is "important news of public interest." The former Eisenhower press secretary said requests for equal time would be considered "when the occasion presents itself."

Beach Park, Excavation Action Asked Of Board

Two communications from the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs to the Marin County supervisors yesterday asked, respectively, for better rules and enforcement at the new Paradise Beach Park and for adoption of the county excavation ordinance discussed months ago.

Concerning the park, it was suggested that it be open definite hours with no night use, that the fence be repaired, that additional fire protection be given, that there be trash disposal, and that the pier be either repaired or effectively closed.

"Past actions of trespassers require strict actions," said the club, pointing to concern

Soft Drinks Firms, Unions In Dispute

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—A dispute between San Francisco Bay Area soft drinks firms and three striking Teamsters Union locals showed little sign of easing today.

Union officials accused the bottling firms of strikebreaking.

The wage issue is dominant in the dispute. The union has demanded a three-year contract with a $5 a week increase the first year, $4 the next and $4 more the third year. The employers have offered $3, $2, and $2.

An official of Coca Cola Co.—one of the struck firms—said 15 members of striking local 278 were driving trucks through their union's own picket lines.

Federal mediators met yesterday with representatives of both sides, but reported no progress.

Striking drivers received notices from their employers that they may be replaced.

Paul Doty, Fresno attorney representing the bottling firms, said hundreds of applications had been filed since the company advertised for more workers.

Frank Fay, Broadway's Harvey, Dies At 62

SANTA MONICA (P)—Frank Fay, 62, former Broadway vaudeville comedian and radio star, died last night.

Death came at St. John's Hospital while he was semi-conscious. A hospital spokesman said Fay had spoken a few words to his nurse five minutes prior to his death. The nurse and a doctor were at his side.

The spokesman said the actor suffered from an internal rupture of the abdominal aorta. He entered the hospital last Aug. 23.

Born in San Francisco Nov. 17, 1898, Fay made his stage debut at 6 with a part in "Quo Vadis?" in Chicago.

With Johnny Dyer, Fay toured vaudeville circuits for years in the Dyer and Fay team.

Fay's greatest success came in the 1940s when he made a side-splitting comeback in the Pulitzer Prize-winning Broadway hit, "Harvey."

The play opened in 1944, played two years on Broadway and then went on the road with Fay still portraying Elwood P. Dowd, the captivating drunk who palled around with an invisible rabbit.

Fay's first screen appearances included leads in the films "Under a Texas Moon" and "The Matrimonial Bed." Other screen credits included "Bright Lights" and "They Knew What They Wanted."

His seven-year marriage to

Mill Valley Told 2nd Firehouse Would Cost $50,000 Per Year

It would cost Mill Valley more than twice as much to build a second firehouse as to contract with Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District for service in the portion of town where additional fire protection is needed.

This was brought out at a meeting of Mill Valley City Council with the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District Commission last night. City Manager A. E. Almerants estimated a bond issue for a new firehouse would cost about $50,000 per year, against $20,242 per year for service from Alto.

However, noted Almerants, with a bond issue the city would end up in 20 years with a second firehouse and in 10 years with equipment for it. If the service were contracted from the Alto firehouse, the cost would continue.

Present at the meeting were

No action was taken. Blackwell said the discussion would be reported to council. Mayor Robert D. Huber and Councilmen Joseph E. Sheeks and Michael Wornum, who were absent.

Stimulus for the meeting was Armager's request in June of last year for a second firehouse to serve Sutton Manor, Scott Valley and Enchanted Knolls. Armager said last night, "it is needed now."

Chapin said the Alto department would need to add three men to serve the Mill Valley area. He said his district would do it at cost but would ask for a five-year contract with an added one-year termination period.

Armager related the Alto service would mean a saving of two minutes time per call. It takes Mill Valley four minutes to get to Sutton Manor, whereas the Alto department can arrive in two, he said.

Blackwell estimated it would cost, $100,000 to build a firehouse, plus an added amount for equipment.

Almerants said a decision as to a bond issue would have to be made by mid-December if it were to be put on the ballot at next April's municipal election.

Monardo asked if the Alto firemen would take orders from Armager. Chapin said "yes."

Alto has seven paid firemen to Mill Valley's 12.

Recreation Wants Asked

Marinwood residents were asked today to state exactly what they want in the way of recreation facilities.

A questionnaire being sent to each registered voter asks two questions: (1) Do you want a park development for Marinwood? (2) What major facilities do you feel should be included — community building, fire house, swimming pool, other?

A $405,000 bond issue which would have financed a community building, fire house, playground and swimming pool was narrowly defeated last week.

A vote canvass by the Marinwood Community Services District board last night showed the final official vote to be 722 "yes" and 408 "no." Two ballots were disqualified.

A two-thirds majority was needed to pass the bond issue. The final count totaled slightly over 64 per cent.

Results of the questionnaire will be tabulated at a meeting of the community services district board on Oct. 5.

Planners Due Report On Commercial Area

Larkspur Planning Commission will receive a report on city commercial areas today at 8 p.m. at its meeting in the city hall.

A committee consisting of commissioners Andrew Gilardi and F. B. Ketchum, city councilmen Neil R. Brixon and James J. Lienkaemper, and City Manager Ronald E. Piper will make the report.

Sausalito School Board Backs 'Horizons' Plan

Sausalito School District trustees gave verbal backing last night to the "higher horizons" program after a presentation by Jacqueline Smith, Marin City program director of the Marin Council of Community Services.

"Higher horizons," a national program, stresses cultural and academic achievements. Mrs. Smith said. From the practical standpoint it encourages parents to participate with their youngsters in taking them to such places as science and art museums and to the opera.

Trustees told Mrs. Smith the board would assist her in the program at Manzanita and Richardson Bay schools.

The board also:

1. Asked an opinion from County Counsel E. Warren McGuire on what liability might be brought against developers Perego, Harney and Teague, Inc. for removing 21 eucalyptus trees from district land at Bay side School.

2. Accepted resignation of Larry E. Clement of 1364 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, as bus driver. Clement is going into sales work. The board employed Richard E. Dunnigan of 608 Easterly Street, Sausalito, as replacement.

3. Gave permission for 35 pupils to attend the opera "Rigoletto" in San Francisco Oct. 23, the pupils having been selected by music instructor Caesar Claudio.

4. Agreed to take out travel insurance for athletic team members from California Interscholastic Federation. Cost is five cents per student up to 1,000 youngsters and three cents afterwards. This gives team members $1,500 insurance.

5. Approved attendance of Robert Thomson, Richardson Bay School principal; Noah Adair, seventh and eighth grade mathematics instructor, and Supt. Marcus F. Davis at a mathematics conference at Asilomar Nov. 17-19.

Troupers To Put On 'Suds In Your Eye'

Twin City Troopers, little theater group sponsored by the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation commission, will present "Suds In Your Eye," Nov. 24 and 25 and Dec. 1 and 2.

Bruce Schonfeld, business manager for the little theater group, said today he would announce the time and location of the four-run showing later.

Trailer Fees

State Controller Allan Cans-ton has announced that $17,459 was apportioned to Marin County as its share of trailer coach fees collected during the first six months of 1961.

Sound System Approved For Kent School

Kentfield School District trustees last night approved rental of an intercommunications sound system at $264.50 per year for use between the two buildings of the A. E. Kent School.

Installation of the system is included in the cost, said Supt. Howard C. Harmon. After rental for 10 years, the system can be purchased for an additional $10.

The board approved hiring four after-school recreation directors. Robert Cater and Charles Belcher, students at San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, will direct the seventh and eighth grade program at Kent School. Sheila Gievett and George Bottini, College of Marin students, will alternate between the Wolfe Grade and Greenbrae schools.

Review of cost estimates for a drainage ditch and for retilling floors at Greenbrae School was continued until the architectural firm of Corlett and Spackman can get further estimates.

State Moves To Acquire Mt. Tam Land For Park

I-J Special Report
SACRAMENTO — The state moved yesterday to acquire, by condemnation if necessary, the last five parcels of land necessary to round out Tamalpais State Park from the mountain to the ocean.

The State Public Works Board, after being told that "cost of property in Marin County is excessive," authorized immediate condemnation suits on three small parcels, and 30 days of negotiations, then condemnation on two other larger parcels.

The three small pieces, for which H. C. Vincent Jr., the board's administrative secretary, said "negotiations have been unsuccessful," are six acres owned by W. A. Anderson and 2.3 acres by E. C. Isaacs on Franks Valley Road, and 4.51 acres of H. A. Kaufmann on Sequoia Valley Drive.

The two larger pieces, south of Muir Woods, are 62 acres owned by Tony G. Brazil and 420.6 acres by E. G. Brazil. Vincent said negotiations "have just started" for the two Brazil properties.

"The problem in Marin County, he went on, "is the speculative value of the land. We offer what we feel is the real value but the owners feel otherwise."

There is one other property, 552 acres owned by Joe De Ponte, now in condemnation, he said. The other nine parcels, authorized under a million dollar legislative grant, have already been acquired. The Tamalpais park will then stretch down the west side of the mountain and connect with the south end of Stinson Beach State Park.

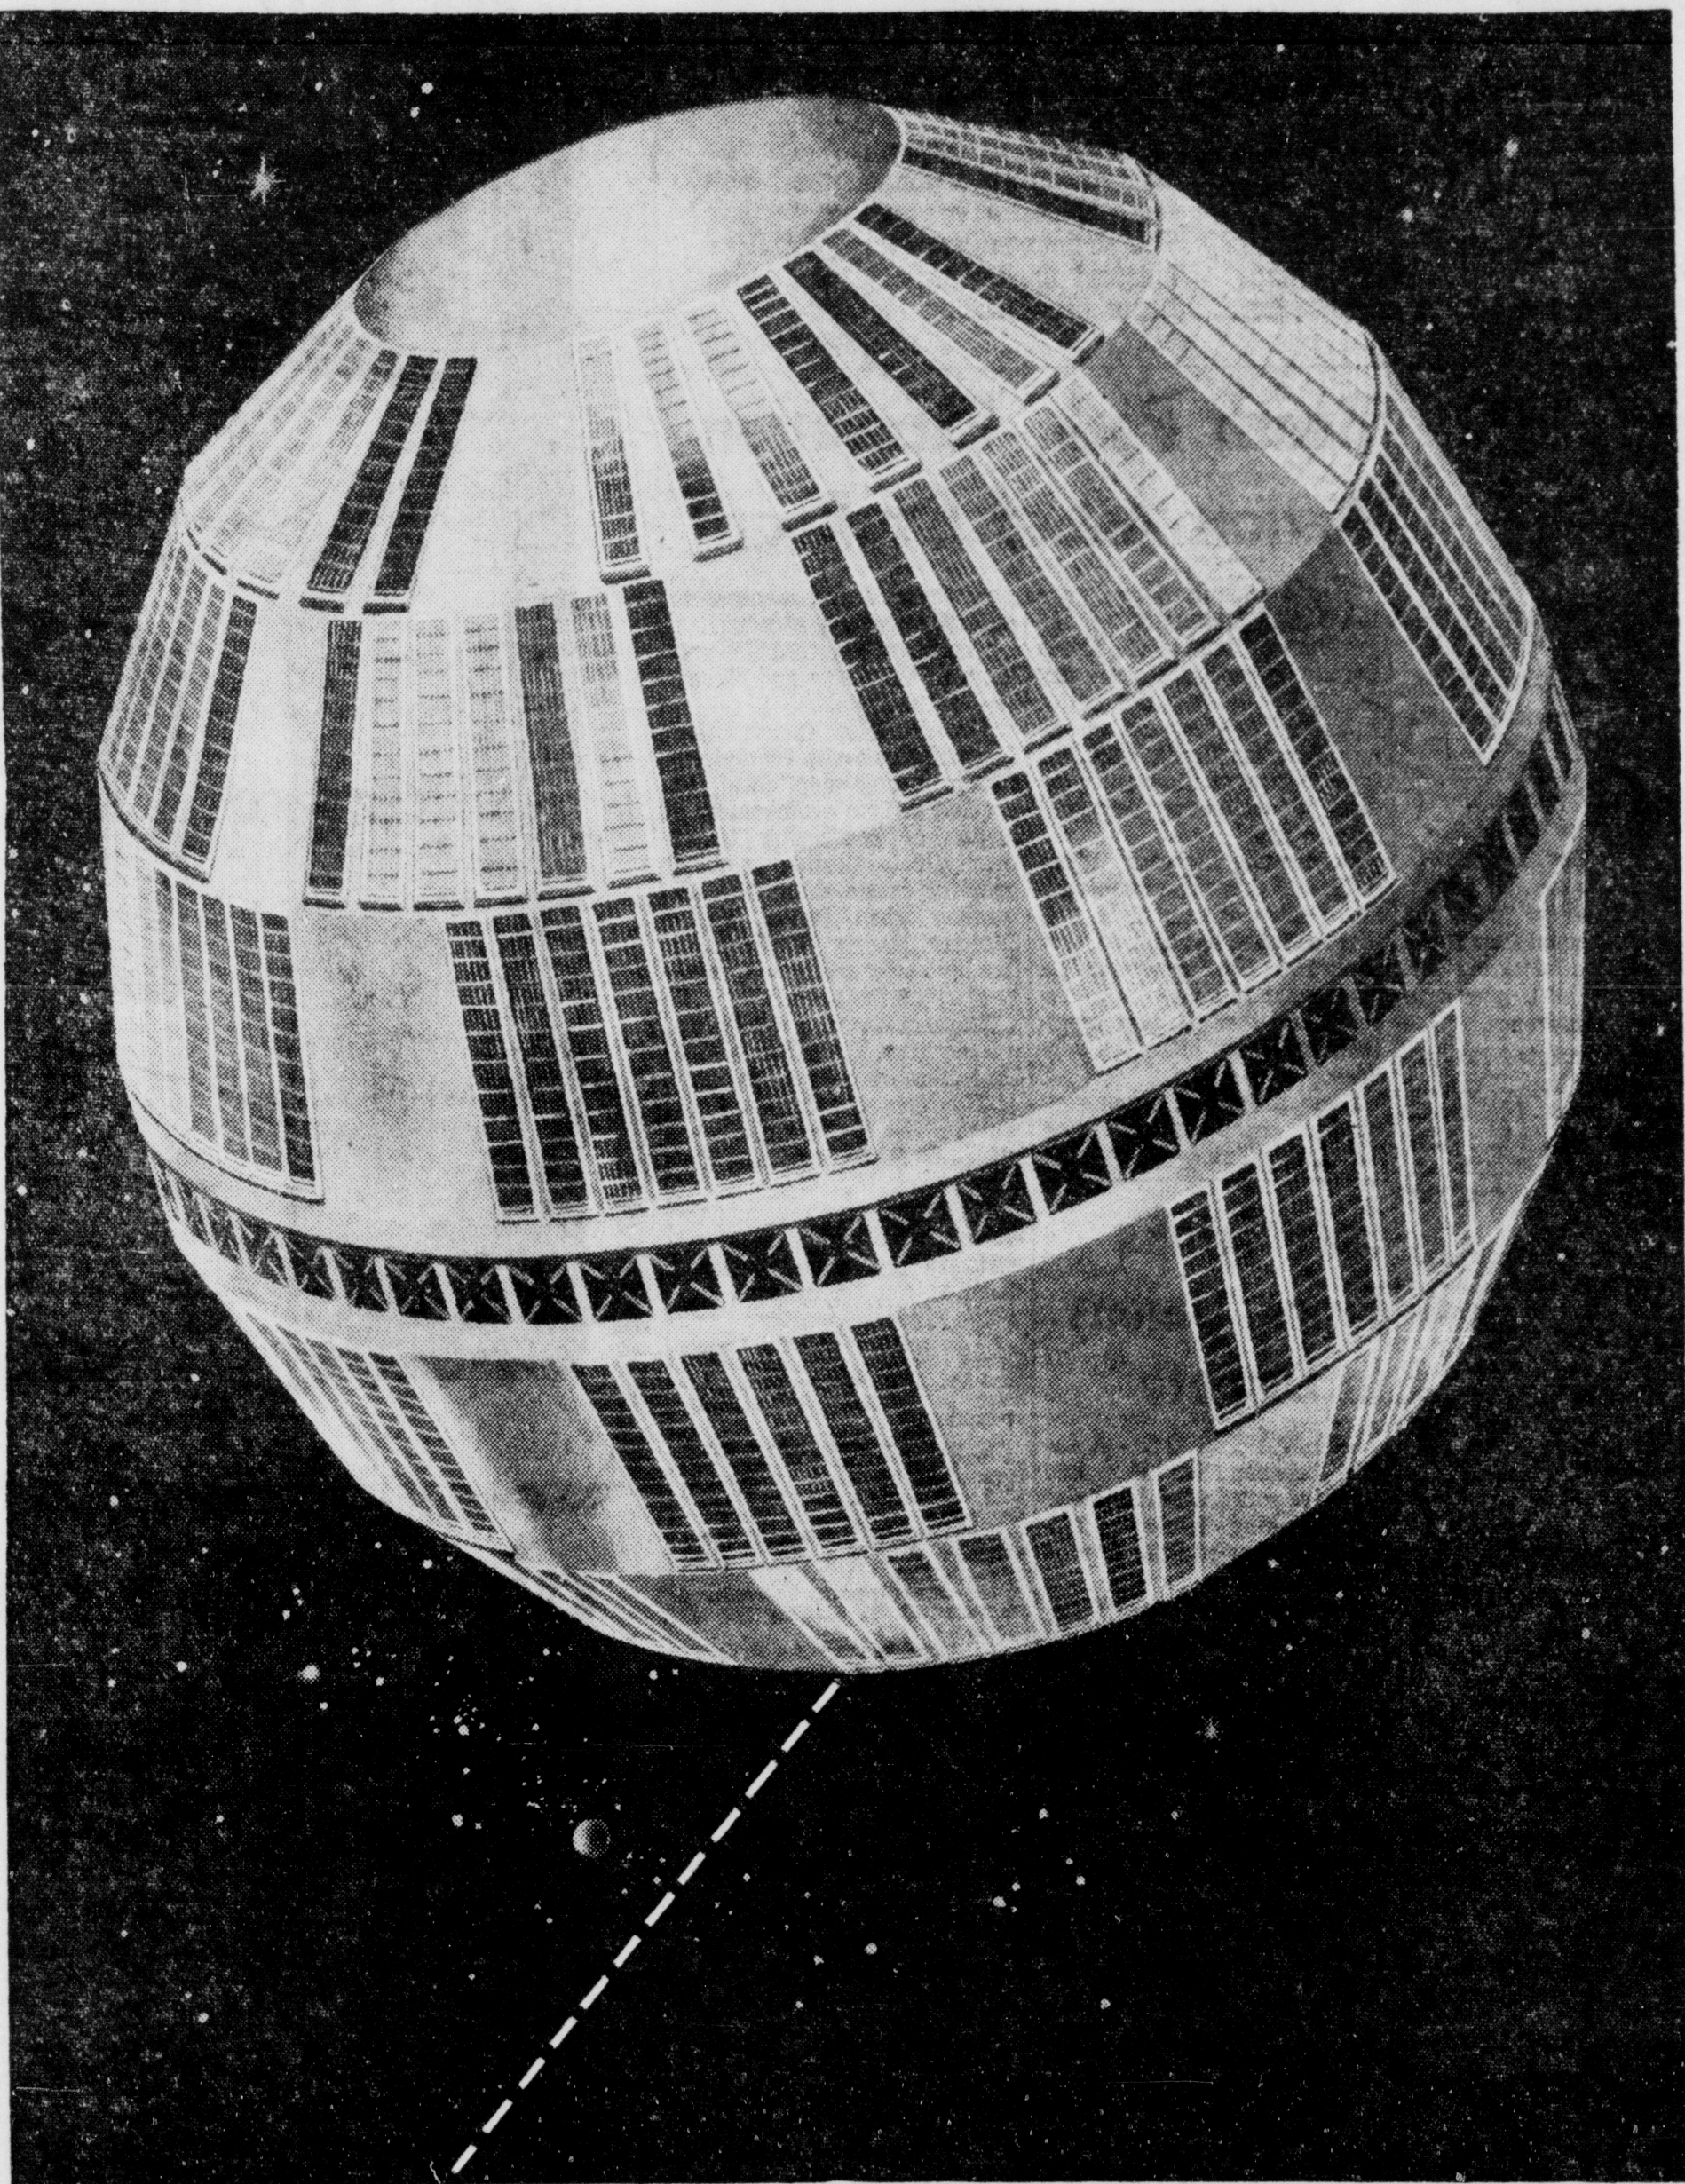

CF101 jets for the squadron will be based at Namao, near Edmonton, Alberta.

Dietitian To Be Hired For Hospital

Marin County Medical Director Rafael G. Dufficy Jr. finally won his fight for a dietitian at the county hospital and farm yesterday, but lost his battle with Supt. Lloyd De La Montanya for direct control.

The board of supervisors followed Administrator Alan Bruce's reminder that in October of 1959 it had adopted a policy statement making the superintendent "responsible for the over-all management, administration, maintenance and upkeep . . . responsible for the employment and discharge of all employees, with the exception of the nursing service."

Since the dietitian won't be a nurse, Dufficy could not be her boss, the board ruled. But it said he should advise and instruct her, and that De La Montanya should back her up as fully in control of the kitchen.

The board had delayed its final decision to hear again from both Dufficy and De La Montanya. But mindful of past personal clashes, it prudently called them in separately.

Dufficy persuaded the board to several changes in job description. He found the title "director of food services" too pretentious and it was changed to simply "dietitian."

"I think the dietitian should come under the medical director," said Dufficy. "We've had no changes in diet, doors have not been screened. She'll have two bosses and it doesn't work."

"We will correct anything that isn't correct," promised Chairman William D. Fusselman.

"It would be understood that if there is any trouble in future you should come to us," said Supervisor J. Walter Blair.

De La Montanya approved the job classification description.

On the vote to approve the job specifications and control by De La Montanya, Supervisor Walter Castro voted "no."

Acquisition Of Fort For Park Delayed

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — The State Public Works Board yesterday delayed at least a month acquisition of part of Fort Baker from the federal government for a state park when Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy questioned advisability of the purchase.

McCarthy, a legislative member of the board, questioned spending $275,000, all the money available for establishing the proposed Golden Gate State Park, on a 130-acre piece straddling Highway 101 over the Waldo tunnel.

The board was told by Charles De Turk, chief of the State Division of Beaches and Parks, that the property was valuable to the proposed park as "open space," that there is "only one little developable area" for recreation, but that it connects directly with the main portion of Fort Baker.

Dixie Trustees Meet Tomorrow

Whether to add to one of Dixie School District's present schools or construct another one in Terra Linda Valley will be discussed by the district's trustees at a meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the district office at 4775 Redwood Highway.

Under consideration, according to Supt. Dennis B. Willis, are: (1) adding to the new Don Timoteo School, (2) adding to Vallecito School, or (3) building a new school.

The trustees will also review the district's disaster plans and award contract for construction of a multi-use room at Silveira School.

Two more teachers and a custodian are to be hired.

with its large level area and harbor just inside the Golden Gate.

The 130 acres stretches on the east side of the highway from the Sausalito lateral to the ridge of the hills, across the top of Waldo tunnel and includes 50 acres or so on the west side of the highway.

McCarthy reiterated his support for Golden Gate State Park, which is proposed to include the three forts of Baker, Barry and Cronkhite on the Marin shore and the beach areas from the Marina to the San Francisco beach. However, he suggested that purchase of non-recreational lands would deplete the funds available for purchase of the more desirable portions of the forts should they become surplus.

De Turk said he felt more funds would become available in the future.

McCarthy suggested the property on the west side of the highway be acquired, but the area to the east be allowed to be sold for private development.

De Turk said the federal government is not interested in splitting up surplus parcels of property. If the state buys at half price (appraised value is $550,000), it must hold the land for recreational purposes for at least 20 years before it can dispose of it, he reported.

The 30-day delay will allow DeTurk to set up an inspection trip for the board members.

Plane Reported Taken From Sausalito Base

A Republic Seabee airplane, worth $5,400, formerly based at the Commodore Air Service in Sausalito, has been hijacked, the owner complained to the sheriff yesterday.

John Ostrowski of 12750 Lone Court, Saratoga, said he left his five-seater, pusher type seaplane at Commodore for repairs some time ago. A man named Doug Farrand from Reno was doing the repairs, according to Commodore officials. Ostrowski said he learned that Farrand took the plane to Sacramento Municipal Airport, and then it was removed to Marysville. He is not sure what happened after that.

Sidney Seid, president of Seil Aviation Co., which operates Commodore Air Service, said the matter is entirely a private problem between Ostrowski and Farrand, and Commodore is not involved in any way.

Seid said Ostrowski's plane was at Commodore last April, but that was the last he has seen of the plane. The plane

Union, Shipowners Talks Resume

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Negotiations between representatives of shipowners and the Masters, Mates and Pilots Union were resumed today in an attempt to avert a paralyzing West Coast maritime strike.

A walkout was originally set for Saturday, but was postponed until yesterday on a legal technicality and then postponed again when talks were resumed yesterday. Negotiators agreed to meet again today, but declined to comment on their progress.

If the talks are successful, they could prevent resumption of the last unsettled fragment of a nationwide maritime walkout halted by a Taft-Hartley injunction last June.

Corte Madera Subdivision Map Passes

Corte Madera Planning Commission last night approved the tentative map for the Up-lands subdivision, a 37-unit development to be constructed on Paradise Drive.

Among the exceptions on the map were maximum grades of 17 per cent on the streets and agreement not to have planting strips between the curb and sidewalk because of the steep slope.

The commission set a special meeting for Oct. 19 for review and revision of the town's general plan. The request for the review came from the town planning consultant firm, Livingston and Blaney.

The planners denied the appeal of Shell Oil Co. from board of adjustment denial for a sign at 2066 Redwood Highway.

The commission approved applications for an open display platform at the rear of Corte Madera Hardware at 26 Tamalpais Drive and for a 12-by-14-foot office building for Paradise Engineering Construction, Inc., at 5760 Paradise Drive.

Fire Chief Carl O. Heynen Jr. said today he is accepting applications for the position of firemen. Forms may be picked up at the firehouse at 27 Shell Road.

Pacheco Ranch Zone Change Is Approved

Rezoning of the 680-acre Pacheco Ranch on Highway 101 opposite Hamilton Air Force Base from limited agricultural to a planned community zoning was approved yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

Perce Fleming, representing the developers of the area, Ponticopoulos Inc. of Los Angeles, did not indicate what was planned for the development. The matter will come before the Marin County Board of Supervisors next Tuesday, at which time a public hearing will be set.

The planners continued for further study an application by Milton McDonogh for a 30-square-foot, free-standing sign, advertising boat trips to Angel Island, at Tiburon Boulevard and Jefferson Drive in Tiburon. It will be discussed again Oct. 23.

Architectural supervision of a nursery sales office, storage facilities and a lath house for Neil Martin on Shoreline Highway west of Tennessee Valley Road was approved.

A beauty shop which has been operated by Margaret Tambussa at 424 Olive Avenue in Novato for the past four years without a permit, will be allowed to continue, the commission decided.

The application will be reviewed again in five years. Meanwhile, Mrs. Tambussa was told she could not have a sign, enlarge the facilities, hire an employee or enlarge the facility. The business must be operated by appointment only.

*you're being asked to
"think big, think compact and think small."*

For 1962

Think Hard

By GEORGE ROMNEY, President, American Motors Corporation

In the 1962 car announcements there will be so many names, models and sizes, that people will be confused.

You will be asked to "think big, or think compact, or think small" as to the size or kind of car you really need.

We recommend, instead, that you "Think Hard."

Think hard about the things you want most in your next car.

Then look hard.

Look for most value. There are more than 100 improvements in the 1962 Ramblers. See how many of these advances are missing in competitive cars.

With our workers as progress-sharing partners, you can expect superior craftsmanship in Ramblers. American Motors' company-wide objective is to make trouble-free Ramblers a symbol of American industrial integrity and honesty... to make Rambler quality superior to that of even far costlier cars built anywhere in the world.

To accomplish this, we are sharing our progress with customers. Because to continue our growth we know we have to give you an obviously better value in product and in price.

How can Rambler give you more than the "Big Two"? It's a matter of dollars and cents. Every completely new car in the past three years including the Lincoln Continental and Thunderbird has copied Rambler's modern principle of Single-Unit construction.

To convert from old-fashioned separate body-and-frame production lines to single-unit production requires hundreds of millions of dollars for retooling.

Our modern production lines have already been fully paid for. Therefore, we can spend our money to bring you important new benefits and keep our prices low. The records show that our two major competitors have increased prices on their low priced standard models about 50% more than Rambler in the period from 1955 to 1961.

This is one way in which Rambler has been sharing progress with customers.

We must be offering an obviously better value, for in just 12 months, 278,494 owners—of all makes, in all price ranges—switched to Rambler.

Rambler owners—new and old—say they are going to buy Rambler again. In owner loyalty, Rambler continues its big lead over ALL makes of cars—DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN, REGARDLESS OF PRICE—according to a recent survey for a national magazine.

With Rambler-pioneered Single-Unit construction, Rambler owners can keep their cars longer with fewer worries about rattles, rust and cost. Rambler is the only U.S. car with Deep-Dip rustproofing clear to the roof. The only car with Ceramic-Armored muffler and tailpipe. For the original buyer, it will be replaced free by a Rambler dealer if it ever rusts out (collision damage excepted).

For 1962, we have spent huge sums of money . . . largely for "under-the-skin" improvements which assure longer car life, greater safety, lower upkeep, more trouble-free, service-free driving; easier handling, better performance and superior comfort.

In the 1962 Ramblers you will find a Double-Safety Brake System, standard. It has a tandem master cylinder. One for front brakes. One for rear brakes. If one system is damaged, the other still works. (There are similar systems on Rolls-Royce, Jaguar and '62 Cadillac.) And self-adjusting brakes that compensate for brake lining wear are also standard.

You will find chassis lubrication on most models that lasts 33 times longer. Many parts are lubricated for life.

In all models, Dowgard Full-Fill Engine Coolant replaces both water and anti-freeze at low cost, and is good for 2 years.

There's much, much more—important improvements "under-the-skin" and in exterior and interior beauty.

October 6th is the 1962 Rambler announcement date. It is well worth waiting for. In the meantime send for a free booklet entitled, "What's New In Rambler For '62—And Why." Then "Think Hard." Rambler's better value can save you hundreds of dollars. Write to: Rambler Booklet, Dept. 2, Box 531, American Motors Sales Corp., Detroit 32, Michigan.

If Tunnel Not Rebuilt, Rail Service Will Die

If the Northwestern Pacific tunnel under Puerto Suello hill is not reopened, we can tell the railroad good bye.

In our opinion, it will only be a question of time until rail traffic declines sufficiently and costs rise sufficiently to put the Northwestern Pacific out of business in San Rafael and the rest of central Marin County, if the tunnel remains closed.

In applying to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon the tunnel—closed since it collapsed during a fire last July 20—the railroad suggested that service to San Rafael and Central Marin could be provided via railroad ferry from Richmond to Tiburon.

And there was a suggestion that depot facilities might be installed on the railroad just north of San Rafael for receiving shipments of sand, gravel and possibly other construction materials.

No one can deny that these suggestions would provide service of a sort to Marin. But it would not be the kind of service that builds additional traffic. The result more likely would be in the opposite direction.

We already have heard from several industries that they will have to move away if rail service is permanently curtailed. We can hardly expect new industries to want to locate here when rail transportation is such a make-shift matter.

Everything delivered at a depot north of San Rafael would, it seems obvious to us, be subject to costly relay shipment to get it to a plant south of the closed tunnel.

And there are serious questions as to how satisfactory the ferry service connection would be. We recall that the old Richmond-San Rafael auto ferry service was subject to suspension on account of weather and on account of labor disputes.

If the ferry labor disputes could be arranged to coincide with railroad strike shutdowns, suspensions of service would not increase. But labor disputes cannot be arranged so neatly. In fact, they tend to arrange themselves for quite an opposite effect. We cannot forget the protracted tie-ups of the old auto ferry. And after every tie-up, there was a fare increase to pay the bill.

No thanks, we don't want that kind of a "weak link" in the rail service to central and southern Marin. It is no basis on which to build expansion. Quite the opposite, it would discourage dependence on the railroad for supplies.

As we said above, if the tunnel is not rebuilt, we can tell the railroad good bye.

We hope that the I.C.C. and the California Public Utilities Commission keep this in mind when considering the railroad's application for permission to abandon the tunnel.

A more realistic application would be for the abandonment of all rail service south of the tunnel, for that is what will inevitably happen unless the tunnel is restored.

Wandering swindlers, armed with "every gimmick and dodge in the book," were the object of a special warning by a New York State official.

He was quick to add that the dishonest type were not to be confused with the legitimate representatives of reputable companies.

The official offered buyers these suggestions:

1. Ask to see the credentials of any salesman.
2. Check prices against those of local merchants.
3. Never sign a contract with blank spaces or one whose terms are not completely clear.

Door-To-Door Salesmen Find Some Remarks Older Than Time Itself

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks a door-to-door salesman gets tired of hearing:

Cal-Vet Insurance Complaints Asked

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Have received the following information that many veterans in Marin County would like to know.

Rosecoe Morse, the department commander of California, has sent it to all adjutants in California of the American Legion. Many veterans in Marin who do not belong to the American Legion would like to know these facts.

The Assembly Interim Committee on Finance and Insurance will hold a hearing on the Cal-Vet insurance program in San Francisco on Oct. 17.

Many veterans have complained about the amount of insurance they are required to carry increased out of due proportion. Others have complained about the service given them in adjustment of losses.

It is essential this information be placed in the hands of the investigating committee. Will you therefore please request any members of your post who have such complaints, to mail them in to department headquarters NO LATER THAN MONDAY, OCT. 16, and the department will see they are presented to the committee.

Be sure that each veteran making a complaint gives his name and the address of the property involved.

Send mail to The American Legion, Department of California, 117 Veterans War Memorial Bldg., San Francisco 2.

We of Wilkins Post 37, San Rafael, and the other posts in the county thank you for all publicity you have given on veterans affairs.

Even Mushrooming Novato Keeps True Feeling Of Rural Wild West

North Marin County, of which Novato is the center, is the rural brother of the more sophisticated towns in the southern part of the county. Novato prides itself on its rural atmosphere and industrial potential that could support all the future population of the county.

It still has some of the Wild West feeling about it. It doesn't take a reporter long to find some of this, as witness the stories about donkeys loose on Cherry Street or a buckboard accident in a shopping center parking lot.

Don't ever call this a one-horse town though, because we've already counted three buckboards in the community.

THIS RURAL atmosphere was really brought home the other day when we saw a big cowboy in his broad brimmed black hat strolling nonchalantly down Grant Avenue with his gun and gunbelt slung carelessly from his hip.

No one paid any attention to him as he left the bank, chatted with a few friends, got in his new pickup truck and drove out of town.

IF YOU HAVEN'T visited Novato for some time, don't think that the unpolished shoes are a sign of the rural atmosphere. It's merely because the last shoeshine boy who held out at the bus depot, is not there any longer. A remodeling of that establishment took away his stand.

Shed tears of nostalgia if you want, but there are no shoeshine boys left in Novato.

IN CASE YOU are ever lost in Novato, or wonder how far it is to other places, there is a sign in the 1200 block of Grant Avenue that can direct you.

Arrows on the sign point the direction and give the distances: Fairbanks, 2155 miles—Mexico City, 1885 miles—Tokyo, 5131 miles—London, 5355 miles—Oscar's, 10 feet.

The sign is in front of Oscar's Paints at 1222 Grant Avenue.

"OH GIVE ME a home where the buffalo roam and the deer and the antelope play . . ."

We haven't seen any buffaloes or antelopes in Novato, but the other morning on Reichert Avenue, less than two blocks from the business district, a large doe deer was slowly crossing the street just a few feet from where children gather to catch a school bus.

JUST IN CASE anyone thinks that we are knocking this rural atmosphere that can produce state championship cows, we are not. In fact we like the feeling of growth of a new community and the friendliness of the people.

And do not think that everything is dusty from the winds blowing in off the range. This town probably has the cleanest flowers of any town in Marin County.

That's a fact. In spite of the long dry summer with all its water rationing, this area has the cleanest flowers of anywhere.

It must have, because down on South Novato Boulevard and Center Road, there's an Orchid Cleaners.

Question At U.N. Is Why It's So Serious That One Man Was Killed

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —Except among the Soviet bloc delegates, who are happy at the prospects, the corridors of the United Nations are filled with gloom and despair.

The question is not whether the death of Dag Hammarskjold has brought the U. N. to the brink of impotence—but why. Why does the loss of the secretary general thrust into the hands of the Soviets their long-sought opportunity to wreck the U. N. or, at the very least, to immobilize it totally?

If its defenders are to have any good chance to thwart the Communist plan to reduce the U. N. to a complete zero—except as a Soviet sounding board—we must see why Hammarskjold's tragic plane crash provides a windfall to the Soviet bloc and creates a situation nearly—but not quite—impossible for the majority of the U. N. members to rectify.

THE REASON is this: Hammarskjold controlled the machinery of the U. N. and when the General Assembly directed him to use that machinery, as in the case of the Congo, no Soviet veto could stop him.

Only the secretary general has this power.

Before Hammarskjold's death, there was no Soviet veto over his action when the General Assembly authorized him to act and gave him the means to act.

But there is a Soviet veto over the election of his successor.

For a year now the Soviet Union has been seeking a way to prevent the U. N. General Assembly from doing anything Moscow doesn't like. Its plan was to replace the secretary general with a three-man committee, any one of which could block the U. N. from doing anything.

BUT KHRUSHCHEV could not impose this immobility on the U. N. because it would require an amendment to the charter and this could be vetoed.

Thus, however, without a secretary general the U. N. General Assembly has no means through which to act and no new secretary general can be selected without the approval of the Soviet Union.

Thus, through the death of Hammarskjold the situation is exactly reversed from what it was a year ago. Then the "troika" method of immobilizing the General Assembly could be vetoed. Now the General Assembly is without any executive head who can act on its authority and his replacement can be vetoed by Moscow.

This is why the United Nations is on the brink of impotence and the advantage is almost wholly with Moscow.

BUT NOT QUITE. There is one way out and, if I understand the facts, only one way out.

While a new secretary general can only be elected with the approval of the five permanent members of the Security Council, an interim secretary general can be named by a two-thirds majority of the General Assembly.

This would give the General Assembly a temporary executive head with power to use the machinery of the U. N. at the direction of the General Assembly until a new secretary general could, if ever, be agreed upon by the Big Five. There would be no veto available over this decision.

Thus it is now in the hands of the unaligned and newly independent nations, who could alone provide the two-thirds majority, to rescue the U. N. from its present inert stalemate.

Will they do it? Or will they yield to Soviet ruthlessness and intimidation as did the Belgrade neutrals three weeks ago?

Age Of Consent Law Hit By State Bar

MONTEREY — The California State Bar opened its annual convention yesterday with agreement on resolutions concerning communism and juvenile sex.

The 2,000 lawyers and judges turned down overwhelmingly an American Legion backed resolution that membership in the Communist Party be made automatic grounds for disbarment. The vote was 337 to 45.

Bar President James G. Sheppard said that it is his belief that expressly forbidding communists to practice law would be ineffective.

"If the Communist Party changed its name to the John Smirch Society, the ineffectiveness of such legislation would be obvious to anyone," Sheppard said.

In regard to juvenile sex, the delegates adopted a committee's report on a year-long study on the problems of statutory rape, urging the State Legislature to lower the age of female consent from age 18 to age 16.

It was the bar's view that dropping the age at which a girl can legally agree to sexual intercourse would protect men and boys from sexually aggressive girls and black-mailing parents.

In a resolution, the delegates emphasized that the change should be made because girls of today are perhaps more knowledgeable about sex matters than were girls of 1913, when the age was last fixed.

In effect, the statutory rape law makes it a felony for a male to have sexual intercourse with a female below the legal age of consent regardless of who is the aggressor and regardless of whether or not the girl consents.

The committee report noted that the legislature first set the age of consent at age 10 in 1872, raised it to 14 in 1889, to 16 in 1897 and then to 18 in 1913.

"There has been a progressive increase in cases in which the female is the aggressor," the report stated. "In such cases, serious doubt has been raised whether the ends of justice require prosecution."

"Prosecutors are many times under pressure of parents of the girls involved to file statutory rape charges, whereas a misdemeanor prosecution might better fit the facts."

"This problem is particularly aggravated in areas where large numbers of servicemen are released on temporary leave and are victimized by sexually aggressive girls," the committee report concluded.

The Conference of Bar Delegates is meeting at the Monterey County Fairgrounds, and the Conference of California Judges is in session at the Casa Munras Hotel.

Savings, Loan Firm Files For Novato Permit

A second application to open a savings and loan office in Novato has been filed with the state savings and loan commissioner, it was disclosed today.

Hearing on the application will be held on Oct. 26, said John Russell, one of the directors.

Applicant is the Novato Savings and Loan Assn., one of three firms denied state licenses in Novato in November last year. It would have a capital of $250,000.

Officers are J. B. Rice, president; John Angeloni, treasurer and Dr. Ralph J. Weseman, secretary. Directors include Everett Pozzi, Gordon Walker, John Russell and Andrew Copperud.

Angeloni and Pozzi are Novato city councilmen. Russell, who lives in Kent Woodlands, and Copperud, who lives in San Rafael, are the only directors not Novato residents.

Last year three firms applied for permits to operate savings and loan offices in Novato. All were denied. The Berkeley Savings and Loan Assn. was denied a permit in 1956.

Among reasons given for denying permits was that Novato lacked sufficient population to support such an organization.

"The rapid increase in population may change this now," said Russell.

Novato Cab Co. Purchases Firm Of Competitor

Sale of the Novato Cab Co. to William and Louis Warden of the Yellow Cab Co. was announced today.

Price was not disclosed. Mrs. Consuelo Le Cam, owner of the Novato Cab Co., confirmed the sale.

On Aug. 22, the Novato City Council approved operation of both cab companies, with each to have two taxis. Louis Warden, who owns Yellow Cab company with his son, Robert, protested and was granted two additional cabs by the council on Sept. 9.

The Wardens will operate both companies separately, Warden said.

Sale will not be final until the city council clears the transfer of permits, according to Warden.

Young Sleepy Hollow Girl Hurt In Freak Bike Mishap

An 8-year-old Sleepy Hollow girl was hurt yesterday in a freak accident at first thought to involve an automobile and a bicycle, but with later developments virtually eliminating the car as a factor.

Pamela Richmond Craig of 110 Legend Road was riding north on Butterfield Road at 3:25 p.m. with two girl companions as Terry Allen Aquillano, 17-year-old Drake High School student of 5 Jordan Avenue, approached in his sedan from behind.

Driver and a witness later concurred that Pamela's bike wobbled and she toppled toward the car, which came to a halt simultaneously. The child suffered a head injury, broken nose and face cuts and was in "fair condition" today at Marin General Hospital.

California Highway Patrol investigation failed to find any mark on the car or even dust disturbance to show contact with the little girl. The driver was absolved from blame.

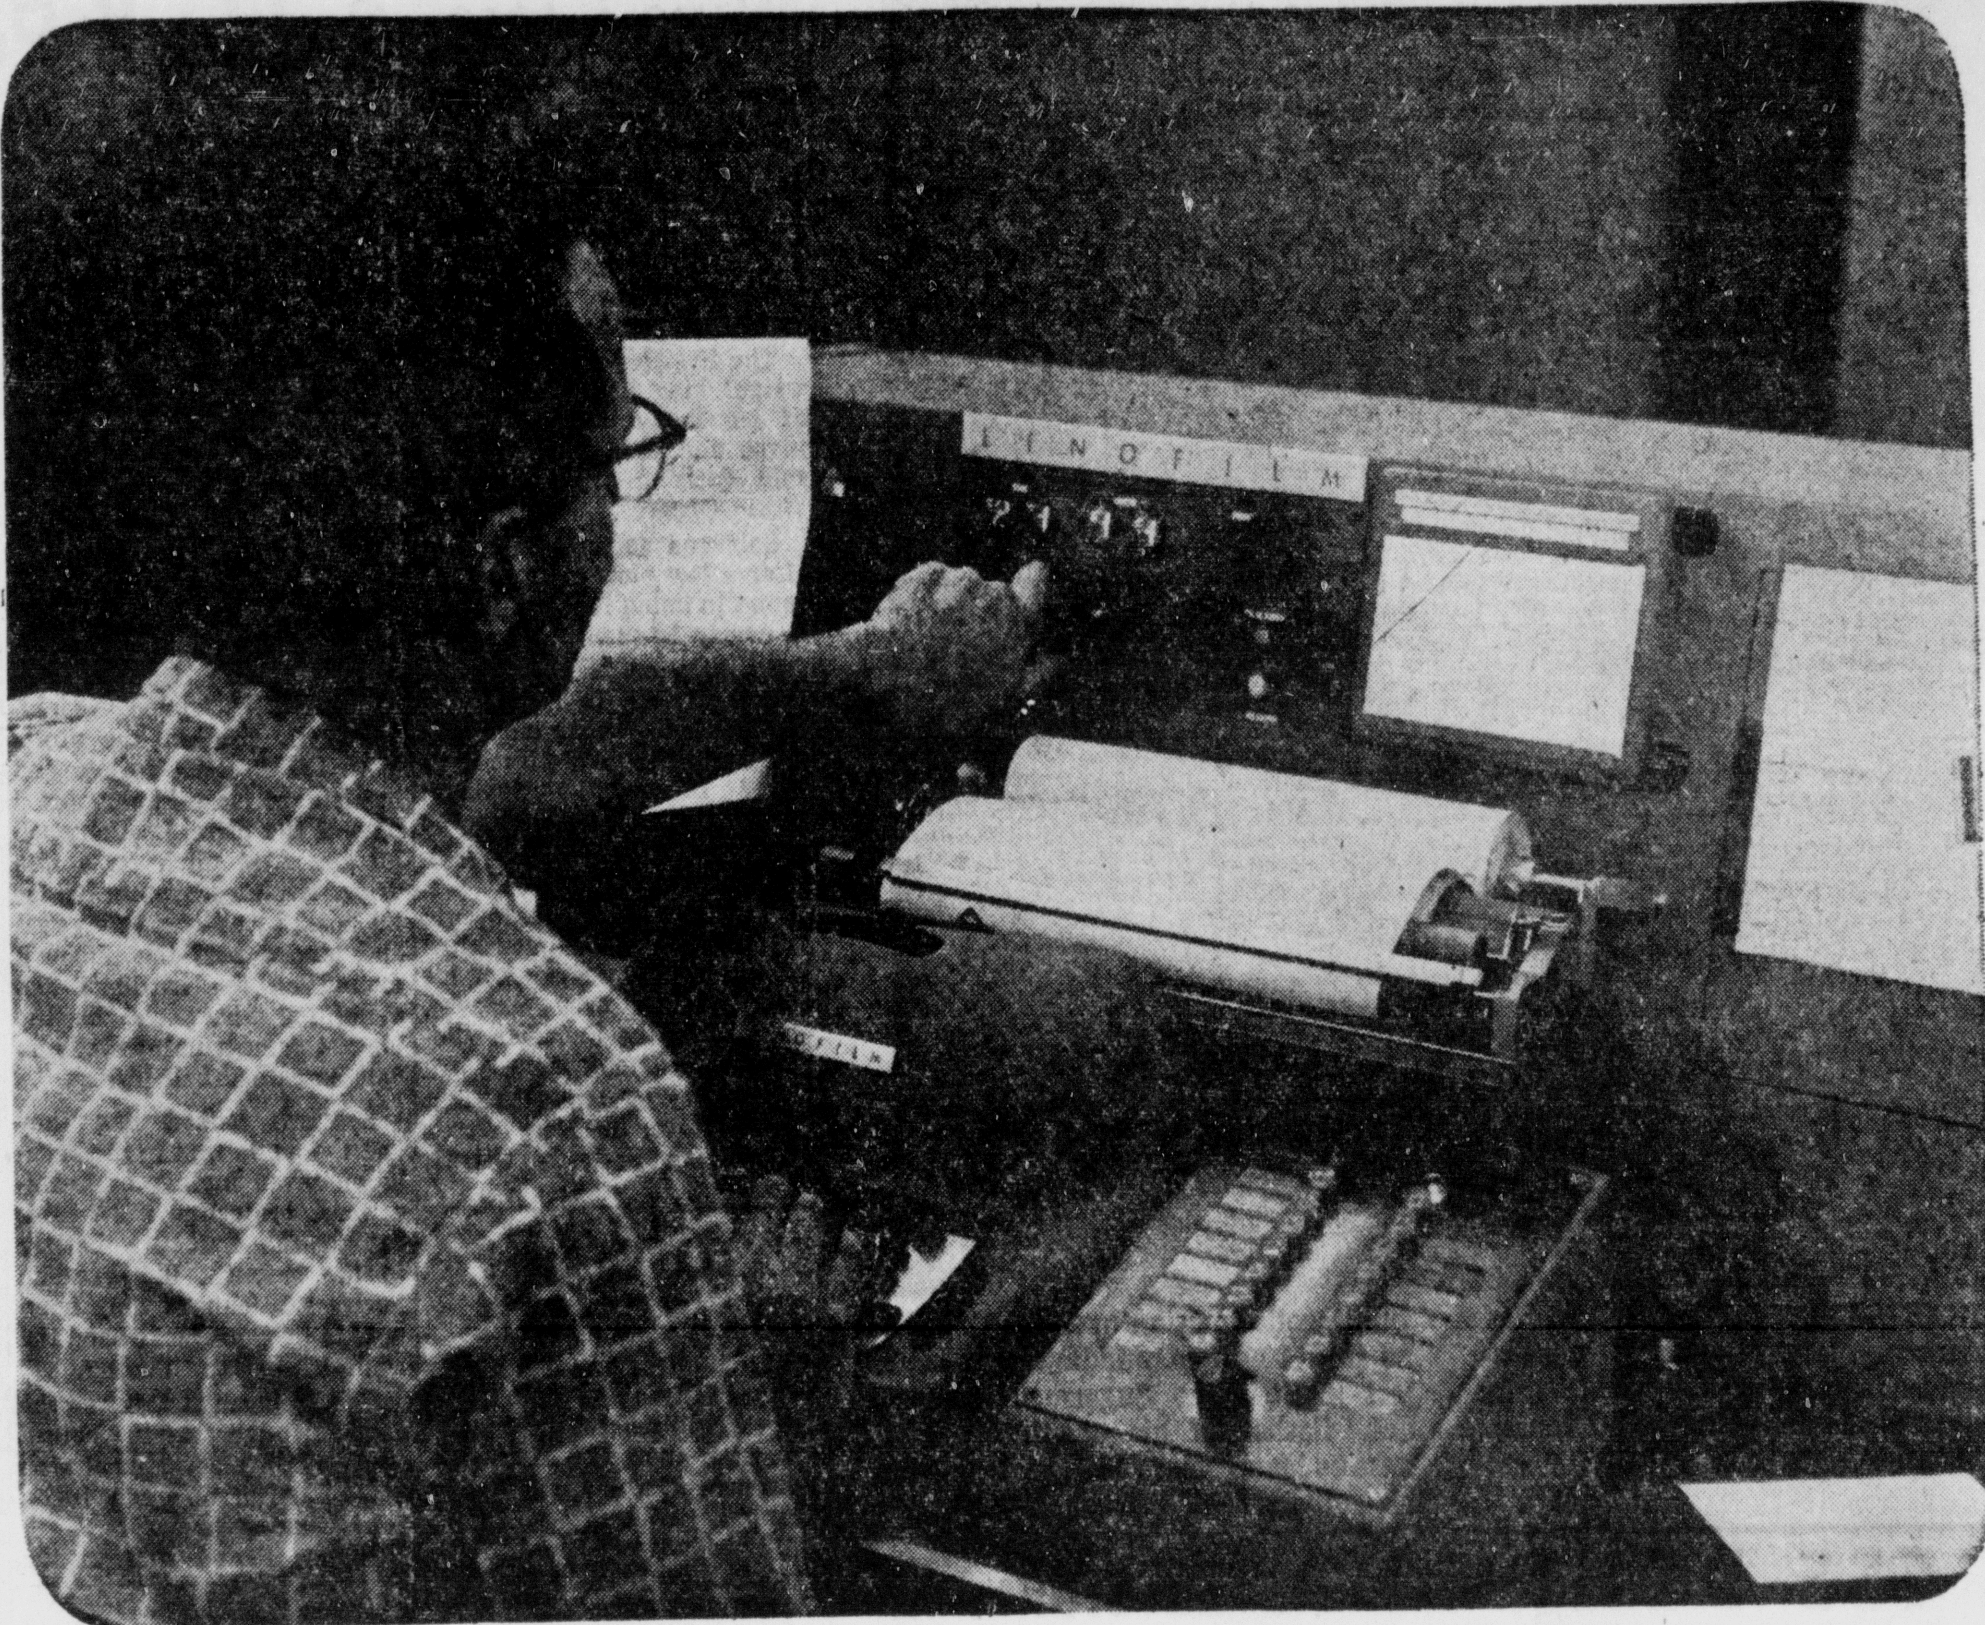

Savings Bonds

Sales of U.S. Savings Bonds in Marin in August totaled $147,597. D. C. Davis, county bonds chairman, said today, helping boost Northern California sales to $10,850,500 for a 7.7 per cent increase over August, 1960.

New I-J Electronic "ad machine" brings unheard-of flexibility to advertisers

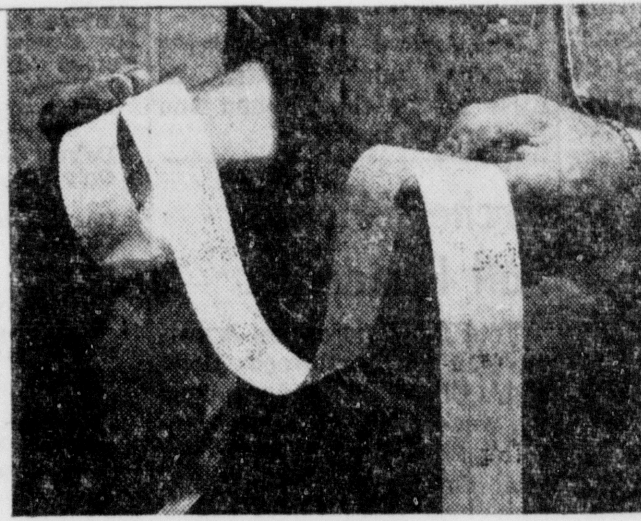

Here at the I-J, we are now able to offer retailers a new kind of advertising service. For the first time in the history of printing it overcomes the limitations of metal type and the reproduction of illustrations. It's all due to our new quarter-million dollar electronic type-setting equipment that adds the new dimension of flexibility.

Our "ad machine" can't think, of course; that's the job of the I-J's 8 advertising specialists. They're the idea men; but the machine can put those ideas into black and white so that you get better ads at lower cost. Type can be blown up, reduced, double-printed; illustrations can be pasted right into place—a hundred new advances are now available through electronics. Listed below are the advantages you can count on for your advertising.

Operator pushes a button to change type fonts—Bodoni, Caslon, whatever is needed. He "blows up" type by turning a knob.

Type is "set" on electronically punched tape—all sizes, all kinds. Electronic photography will bring it "alive."

Here's the type, on paper... being pasted up in an ad. Type has been enlarged or reduced photographically to fit exactly.

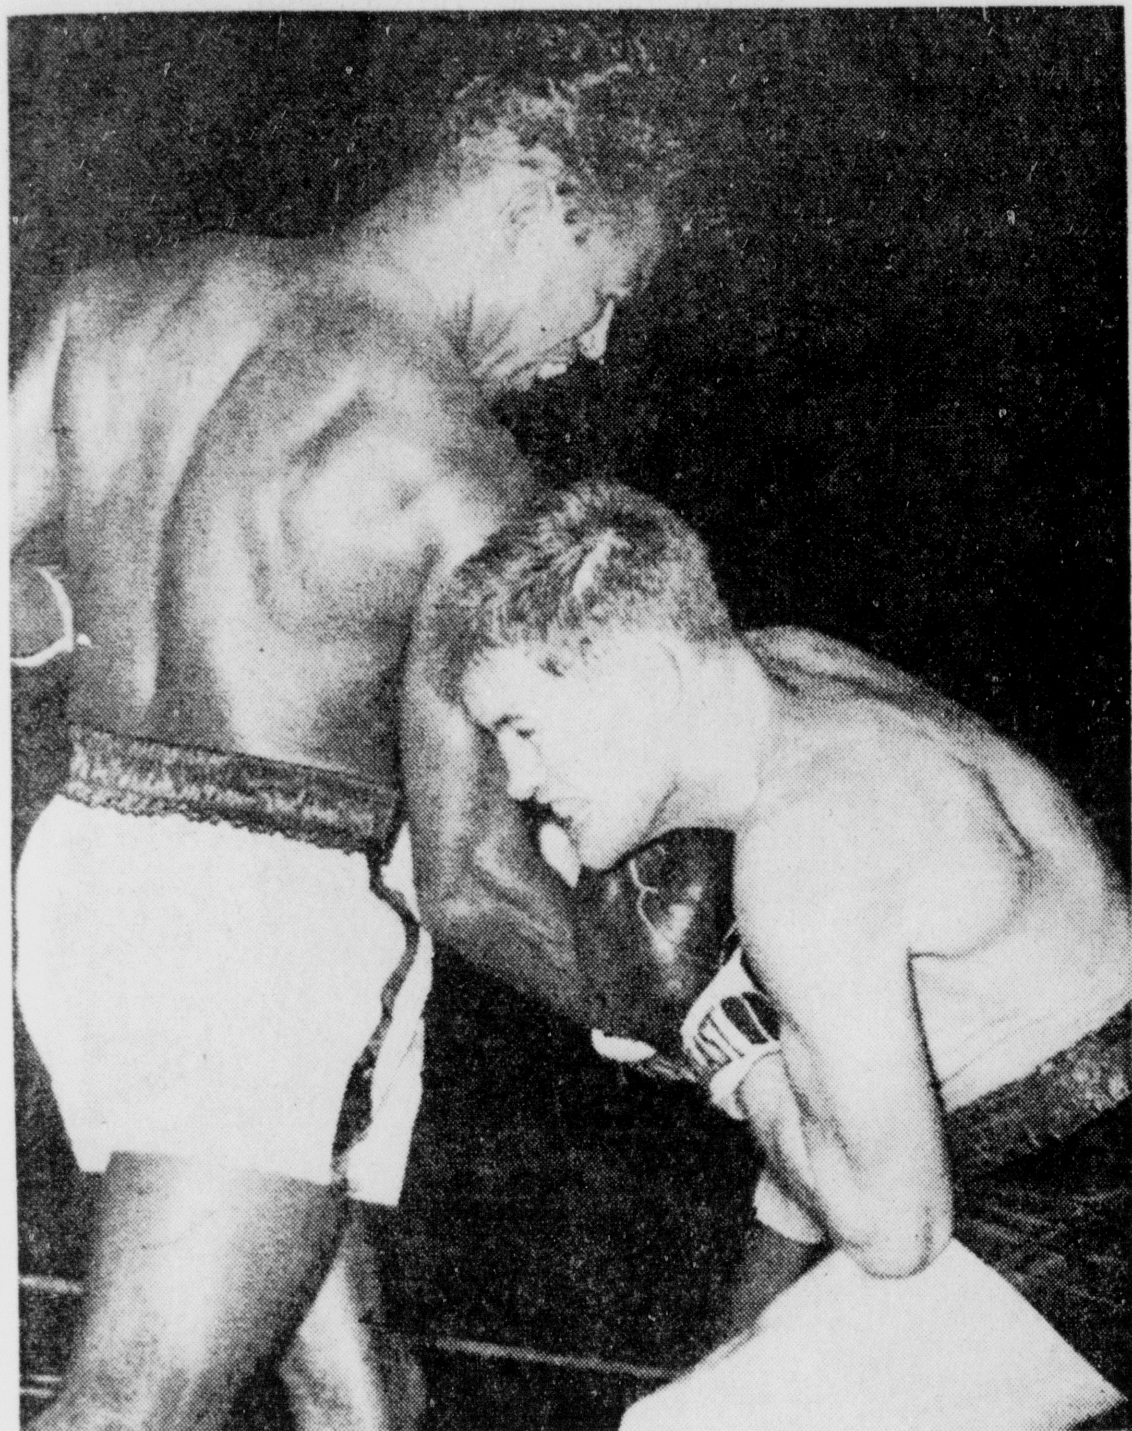

Here's what it means to you as an advertiser

- a better selection of type; clearer, sharper. No limitations of "point" sizes.
- fresh, new type, every letter, every line, every time—for better printing.
- double printing at no extra cost. (Type can be set on piece of merchandise, for instance.)
- special screen effects—no extra charge.
- actual size illustrations can be pasted right in ad (saving you cost of engravings which formerly had to be done).
- savings on engravings lowers your total advertising costs.
- we still can use mats, but can also reproduce direct from your illustrations, magazine photos, clips.

- faster advertising service; we paste up ads, "pull" proofs by special machine process—saves lock-up and mechanical time.
- we keep files of your art work for future use, saving you time.

Special note:

The electronic system frees you of the cost—and the need—to have engravings made in order to supply us with original artwork. (You can actually photograph merchandise, for example, and we can reproduce it, same size, without charge). All final printing, however, of all advertisements is made from highest-quality engravings.

Sugar Ray Wins Close Decision

DETROIT (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, at 41 just a spurring shadow of a great champion, wants to wear the middleweight crown once more.

The five-time former middleweight king launched another of his many comebacks last night and earned a 10-round split decision over aggressive Wilkie Greaves.

Robinson got off the canvas after a low blow in the eighth round to notch his first victory in nearly 18 months.

As soon as he's ready, he said he'd like to fight Gene Fullmer, NBA champion who defeated him last March, or Terry Downes of England. Downes is recognized as the champion in New York, Massachusetts and Europe.

"I'm certainly not ready yet to fight for the championship," Robinson said, weary after his close victory over Greaves, claimant to the Canadian middleweight championship.

Robinson is signed to fight Denny Moyer in New York's Madison Square Garden Oct. 21.

Treemen Cop S.R. Softball Pennant

Righthander Jay Leatherwood pitched a five-hitter and drove in the winning run in the last of the ninth as Sohner Tree Service trimmed Presidio, 4-3, last night at Albert Park to dramatically capture the San Rafael Men's "A" Softball League crown.

Presidio nipped Dugout-Cain Tire, 2-1, in an earlier game last night and gained the right to meet Sohner for the title. All three teams had finished the regular league schedule with 5-3 records.

Pinch-hitter Ed Schultze ignited Sohner's game-winning rally when he tripled to right-center to lead off the ninth. With the Presidio infield and outfield in close hoping for a play at the plate, Leatherwood hit the first pitch on a line drive. It cleared center-fielder Ed Costa by at least thirty feet and landed past the pitcher's mound on the hard-ball diamond for what must be the longest game-winning single in San Rafael softball history.

Sohner's looked like they had the game won in the regulation seven innings as Leatherwood, protecting a 3-2 lead, retired the first two batters in the seventh. But Presidio hurler Ed Johnson then homered to deep center to send the contest into extra innings.

The Treemen almost won the game in the eighth before Costa made a sensational stab of Bob Alvarado's bid for a game-winning homer.

Sohner scored first in the second inning on Earl Beyer's single but Presidio came back with two runs in the third on a walk, a single by Sam Kakazu, and two errors by the usually-dependable Sohner defense.

Sohner's fifth-inning run without benefit of a base hit then set the stage for Johnson's clutch homer in the seventh, and the eventual heroics of Schultze and Leatherwood in the ninth.

In seven meetings this season between the two rivals, only two games have been decided by more than one run while three of the contests have gone extra innings. Last night's dramatic victory gave the San Anselmo nine a 4-3 season's edge.

Cincy Awaits Magic Hour—Maybe Tonight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A wait of more than two decades may have dwindled into the final hours for the Cincinnati Reds. Tonight could bring them their first National League pennant since 1940.

With the magic number at two, the race is at the wire. The Reds were to play the Cubs at Chicago this afternoon and the Los Angeles Dodgers are slated for a two-night doubleheader at Pittsburgh with last year's surprise flag winners, the Pirates.

Any combination of two—a Cincinnati win plus a Dodger defeat, or a pair of Dodger losses—would give the NL another bust-to-boom champion, and would send the Reds into the World Series against New York's home run-blasting Yankees.

Cincinnati was idle yesterday night. The Dodgers and Pirates were rained out, setting up their two-nighter. In other NL games, the San Francisco Giants bombed the Philadelphia Phillies 10-2 with an 18-hit offensive and the Milwaukee Braves cut down the potential tying run at the plate in the ninth inning and edged the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1.

In the only American League action, Bob Shaw pitched eight no-hit innings but was rapped in the ninth as Kansas City gained a split with Detroit, 6-3. The Tigers clinched second place by winning their sixth in a row in the double-header opener, 6-4.

Al Lopez Will Pilot White Sox For 6th Year

CHICAGO (AP) — Al Lopez, the only manager to crack New York Yankee pennant superiority since 1948, will pilot the Chicago White Sox for the sixth consecutive season in 1962.

Lopez, 53, signed a one-year contract yesterday after suffering the worst finish of his managerial career. The Sox will wind up fourth this year.

Last year they finished third. Previous to last season, no team managed by Lopez, a former National League catcher, had finished lower than second.

Beware, Bears! Iowans Rated Nation's Best

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Iowa, which doesn't open its season until Saturday, was voted the top college football team in the country today in the first regular-season Associated Press weekly poll.

The special national panel of 49 sports writers and sportscasters gave the Hawkeyes, who tangle with California in their opener, 343 points to 332 for second-place Mississippi and 309 for third-place Ohio State, another outfit that doesn't get rolling until Saturday.

The points were based on the formula of 10 for first place, nine for second and so on.

Iowa, which also led the pre-season poll, received 19 first place votes to 12 for Mississippi and seven for Ohio State. The Buckeyes, second to Iowa in the pre-season poll, play Texas Christian in their first game Saturday.

Mississippi's smoothly contrived 16-0 victory over Arkansas in a nationally televised game last week obviously impressed the panel. Ole Miss was placed no better than ninth in the pre-season poll with a mere two first-place votes.

Alabama and Syracuse also gained prestige on their opening-day triumphs. The Crimson Tide trounced Georgia 32-6 and Syracuse clubbed Oregon State 19-8. That pushed Alabama up to No. four, just a shade behind Ohio State, and Syracuse to No. five.

The top 19 teams — first place votes in parentheses:

Iowa (19)	343
Mississippi (12)	332
Ohio State (7)	309
Alabama (6)	307
Syracuse	233
Texas (1)	227
Rice (2)	220
Penn State (2)	192
UCLA	93
Michigan State	80

Cepeda Boosts RBI Total To 140--11 Shy Of Record

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The San Francisco Giants have a day off today and they're kind of sorry, especially Orlando Cepeda, who is red hot at the plate.

Cepeda smashed four of the Giants' 18 hits last night in a 10-2 shellacking of the Phillies.

Rookie catcher John Orsino, who goes into the Army after the season ends, belted a pair of long home runs, his 3rd and 4th.

Southpaw Mike McCormick, who hadn't won a game in more than two weeks, had an easy time with a 10-hitter as he won his 13th. He's lost 16.

The Giants move into Pittsburgh for a two-game series starting tomorrow night, then go on to Milwaukee for their final series of the year, three games against the Braves.

Cepeda's three singles and double last night drove in four runs, hiking his total to 140 runs batted in, tops in the major leagues and the highest Giant total since Mel Ott set the club record with 151 back in 1929.

Orsino, Willie Mays and Felipe Alou collected three hits each.

Mays scored three runs, giving him 126—a personal high for a season.

McCormick, registered his third win of the year over the Phils, gave up a home run to Ken Walters in the second inning. That was the 32nd homer off Mike this year.

Sounds Corny, But Red's Success A Team Effort In Truest Sense

PITTSBURGH—Precisely a year ago all the World Series whoop-to-do was going on here in Pittsburgh. Now, of course, Cincinnati is celebrating and the victory of the Reds is as popular as was that of the Pirates in 1960.

Like the Pirates of a year ago, the Reds were overlooked by virtually all of the experts in the 1961 pre-season picks. They weren't even listed among "the contending five" for the 1961 National League pennant.

We remember writing way back on April 20 following Cincinnati's first visit to Candlestick Park "the Reds could be the sleeper of 1961 because they can hit as Candlestick fans discovered during the past three days when they whipped the Giants two-out-of-three."

We also remember tacking one of those hedging qualifications on that statement — "if Fred Hutchinson's youthful mound staff — the youngest in the league—comes through."

And we also remember asking Hutch at the time what he thought of that evaluation of his team and Hutch responded: "If our pitching comes through,

Contest Deadline Set For Oct. 6

Deadline for grade school boys to register for the Punt, Pass and Kick Contest to be held Oct. 7 at the Redwood High School field is Oct. 6 at 9 p.m., John Clahan of Ames Ford, sponsors of the event, announced today.

Boys 6 through 10 may register at Ames Ford Sales, 806 Irwin Street, in San Rafael from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Registrations may also be accomplished at various schools and playgrounds, at Albert Field, and at Taveggia and Brusati Sports Shop in San Rafael.

Five winners at Redwood, one for each age group, will receive football uniforms. Runners-up will be awarded warm-up jackets. Third place winners will be given footballs. Scores of boys throughout the San Francisco 49er area will then be compared and the top regional performers will appear at Kezar Stadium Nov. 19 when the 49ers host the Chicago Bears to compete for national honors.

Ski Exercises

Roger Paris, Sierra Club ski instructor, will open a series of instructions on ski exercises in the girls gymnasium at Tamalpais High School, Mill Valley, today at 7:30 p.m. The classes, which are open to the public without charge, are designed to condition would-be enthusiasts for the approaching ski season.

HANLEY

we'll make our presence known—I'm not bothered by those pre-season picks."

BEFORE LEAVING Crosley Field Sunday evening following the final and 22nd game between the Giants and Reds, we reminded Hutch of that brief interview in Candlestick and he smiled: "That was exactly five months ago today and we have made our presence known. We couldn't have done it without the pitching and the same goes for the hitting."

Joey Jay, Jim O'Toole and the veteran Bob Purkey carried the big part of the pitching load but without Jim Maloney and Ken Hunt and the bullpen aces Bill Henry and Jim Brosnan, the Reds never could have made it. Brosnan was rapped hard in several of his late inning stopper assignments but the author performed just as Casey Stengel, at the mid-season All-Star banquet, predicted he would.

IN 50 RELIEF roles, Brosnan saved 15 in addition to winning nine and losing only three. A remarkable relief record—but one that comes as no surprise to Ol' Case who forecasted the All-Star break that Cincinnati was going to win "because of that aura of authority."

However, it wasn't just Brosnan or Henry, who, incidentally, saved 16 while posting a 2-1 record in 45 relief appearances, or any other individual Red performer. This Cincinnati pennant was truly a team product.

For one prolonged spell in mid-season it looked like Frank Robinson's bat would belt the Reds to victory. Then, Robby's bat cooled but while he was dipping 30 points during a 217 16-game slump (13x 60), his McClymonds High School mate, Vada Pinson, began hitting at a .400 clip.

AND JERRY LYNCH (Lynch the Pinch), Gordon Coleman, Gene Freese—and even that ex-Giant with a normally light bat, Don Blasingame — picked up the batting chores in turn as seasonal slumps affected others.

"Yes," said Hutch, "I know it sounds corny but it was a team victory in the truest sense."

Lavorante In S.F. Victory; Crowd Jeers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Argentine heavyweight Alejandro Lavorante jabbed Alonzo Johnson of Rankin, Pa., half blind, knocked him down twice and scored an unanimous decision before 3,000 dissatisfied fans in Civic Auditorium last night.

Lavorante, at 207 pounds, to Johnson's 188, held a big height and reach advantage but still found difficulty coping with his smaller foe, Johnson continually tried to move inside, grabbing and clinching.

Finally in the ninth of 10 scheduled rounds, Lavorante put Johnson down with a left to the head, Johnson was up at four but took a mandatory eight count. Later in the same round a right put Johnson down for a three-count.

The crowd began jeering Johnson's clutch tactics as early as the third round and kept up the booing.

Archers Hold Fall Handicap

Fred Del Pino of San Anselmo won the Northwoods Bowmen's Club Fall Handicap over the weekend.

Del Pino scored 451 on the final day to beat out Benny Larsen of Terra Linda whose 431 was good for second place. Ed Canale, president of the San Francisco Archery Club, topped third place with 427 and Stan Makinson of Novato placed fourth scoring 426.

Sub-event winners were Jack Kenyon, Apollo Bowmen, San Francisco, best first seven targets; Art Burr, Jr., San Rafael, best first 14 targets; Paul Makinson, Novato, best 21 targets after a shoot-off with Don Graham of San Rafael.

Champion trophy for girls was won by Linda Makinson of Novato.

K.C. Hurler Misses Bid For No-Hitter

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "I like to throw the slider but tonight I shouldn't have," said Bob Shaw of the Athletics.

It was a slider that Bubba Morton drilled into center field for a single in the ninth inning last night, ending a no-hit bid by Shaw against the Detroit Tigers.

Pigskin Oracles Now Ponder First '61 Comparative Scores

By PAUL MILLER

This past weekend provided the first comparative Marin high school football scores for the 1961 season.

While the exclusive use of such statistics is dangerous in predictions, the results cannot be overlooked.

San Rafael High did the same thing Saturday Redwood did against Montgomery of Santa Rosa the week before—held the foreign team scoreless. But San Rafael won by two touchdowns, Redwood tied.

Novato did Friday what Sir Francis Drake would like to have done in the Pirate opener—beat Petaluma, if only by a touchdown. And Marin Catholic was beaten by Analy High, 19-6. Novato had gone under a week ago, but only by a touchdown.

Several coaches found that one week was not enough to remedy weaknesses revealed in opening actions the week-end before. Tam coach Jim Hanretty was one of them.

"We'll be spending a lot of time on tackling next week," said Hanretty after an Indian defeat at the hands of powerful Palo Alto High Friday afternoon.

Absence of sharp tackling after the first quarter was the most glaring Indian weakness against Palo Alto. Hanretty expressed disappointment in the Indians' defensive performance.

When the Marin club went ahead 12-0, upset electricity was in the air. But the Indians suffered a letdown—to the disappointment of Hanretty.

The San Rafael Bulldogs were denied several more touchdowns in their victory over Montgomery Saturday night because they somehow could not score on short plays at the brink of the goal line. Coach Bob Muster decided that this week will be used to practice short, decisive plays against a loaded line. Other efforts will be put on pass defense.

"Some of the Montgomery receivers, although they did not get the ball, still were behind our safeties a couple of times," said Muster. However, he praised the work of Jack Haney in this particular area Saturday.

With his boys two touchdowns to the good in the final period, Muster played some of the second and third stringers to see what they could do. Muster was pleased, almost surprised. He selected tackle John Watts and guard Dwight Stewart as standouts. This is significant because one of Muster's chief worries has been what he feels to be a lack of depth on the team.

Like coach Marlin Olsen of Novato, coach Harry Moore of Catholic shudders thinking back at the heftiness of the Analy High team from Sebastopol. Novato was beaten by the Tigers in their opener Sept. 16; the Wildcats in their opener, 19-6. Both victories for Sebastopol came on by plodding and sheer weight flung against the Marin teams.

Coach Moore praised his quarterback, John Jones, for his work against Analy, and guard Mike Hebel for his exhibition on defense.

"I'll put Hebel up against any high school guard around," said Moore.

This week the Wildcats will be put through intensive sessions on pass receiving and ball handling—not passing off the ball, but rather holding onto it. One could almost say Marin gave away Saturday's game by dropping passes and fumbling the ball.

Novato's Olsen was, of course, pleased with the Hornets' win against Petaluma, which by comparing scores puts them a notch ahead of Sir Francis Drake High. The Pirates were subdued by Petaluma 6-0 in their opener, but went to town against Sonoma High Friday night, 22-0.

COLFER LAUDED

Olsen described Joe Colfer, senior Hornet wingback, as going above and beyond the call of gridiron duty in Friday's strife. Up also for Olsen laurels were tackles John Cook and Art Cherry.

In practice this week on the North Marinites' field, major interest will be placed by Olsen and his assistant coaches, John Panagakos and Dick Paynter, on what has been cluing the Hornets' last two opponents in on offensive patterns.

"They've been keying us in both these games," said Olsen. "If the other team's linebackers had been right where the play was to go every time only in the Analy game, it might have been just that team's ability. But the same thing happened Friday." Olsen said that by some subtle gesture or action the plays are being given away. Whatever it is, this week is will be remedied, he said.

After Friday's clobbering of Sonoma High by the Drake Pirates, head coach Bob Franceschini of the Pirates will no doubt be glad to relinquish his two-platoon system for the season.

PLATOONS GONE

Drake began the season with the brand new system but after the Petaluma loss Sept. 15, Franceschini decided to play some of the better players more on both offense and defense. And by game time Friday, the coach switched to regular limited substitution and indulged his best men in a full evening of action. It paid off in a shutout.

In that game Franceschini pointed out end Bill Foti as being responsible for a good share of the victory. Foti started the rout in the game's first period by blocking a Sonoma punt in the enemy end zone for a safety as well as starring in tackle after tackle. Defensive guard Tiny Thompson of Drake was also credited with a good evening.

Franceschini said this week concentration will be on passing plays as well as some additions to the Pirates' offensive file.

Coach Bob Troppmann of the Redwood Giants is making some major defensive changes after last week's edge-out by Oakland High. "We will definitely be working on our passing game this week," said the defending champions' mentor.

He explained that while only three out of 14 passes were completed in Saturday's contest and one out of nine against Montgomery, "I think we have receivers and passers who can do better than this. Whether it's the lack of experience, I'm not sure at this point."

Troppmann was quick to credit defensive back Dave Lindsay who was the last Giant between Oakland ball carriers and the Marin end zone several times during the evening. On each occasion, Lindsay's low penetrating tackles saved the day. Troppmann also referred to outstanding running of fullback Steve Solinsky, who has not been in competition for the past two years, "but may end up being our outstanding fullback."

"We also liked Mark Pearce," said Troppmann.

Tar Captain Out For Year With Injury

The College of Marin Tars have lost their captain and center Fred Corson for the year.

The former Redwood athlete suffered a torn left knee in the Tars' opener Friday night, and, according to head coach Dick Read, will not be able to play the remainder of the season. Marin, who lost their opener 12-0 to Menlo College, had lost another top player in pre-game practice last week. Star quarterback Ron Blum broke his hand and will be benched for several weeks.

LARGE CROWD

The Tars, of whom Read is a brand new collegiate coach, drew the largest crowd of fans Friday to watch a Marin home game in several years.

"I was real happy with the student body and everyone that came out to see us," said the former San Rafael High head coach.

He said that it was his team's own mistakes that beat them—mostly errors in procedure, like illegal motion. "Also, if we could have scored it would have pulled us together," said Read.

TIMING STRESSED

He said that this week the junior college athletes are working on blocking, pass defense and punting, as well as timing in offensive patterns. In addition to the offensive work there will be some position changes in the line.

Read expressed pleasure with the Tars defensive action, especially tackling. But overall, "we've got a long way to go," he added.

Ski Patrol Meeting Set

Marin unit of the National Ski Patrol will hold its first meeting of the new season this Friday at 8 p.m. in the Red Cross building on Fifth Avenue, San Rafael.

In the meantime, persons interested in joining are asked to contact patrol leader Gene Riggs of 630 Appleberry Drive, San Rafael.

Riggs has been named by the National Ski Patrol as division and regional chairman of ski safety and winter first aid for the 1961-62 season.

The Marin patrol again plans to offer personnel for safety talks, skiing tips, proper exercise advice, etc., for groups of people planning to visit the snow country.

The Marin Ski Patrol has an active junior program open to boys and girls over the age of 15.

Hamilton Team Finishes 2nd In Softball Play

The 28th Air Division softball team from Hamilton Air Force Base took second place last week in the Air Defense Command Softball Tournament held at Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla.

The 28th team lost in the finals to the 4600 Air Base Wing of Ent Air Force Base, Colo., in a double-header 4-1 and 4-3. Previously the Hamilton team had beaten the 29th Air Division 7-0, the 25th Air Division 2-0 and the 4600 Air Base Wing 3-1.

The Ent team will represent the Air Defense Command in the U. S. Air Force Tournament to open at Homestead, Fla., this week. Hamilton's hard-hitting outfielder, Nathaniel Robinson, will join the Ent nine for that tournament.

During five days of play at Tyndall, nearly 10,000 military and civilian fans watched the action.

Strawberry Li'l Loop Benefit Dinner Sunday

A dinner to benefit the Strawberry Little League will be served Sunday from 4 to 7 p.m. in the parking area of the Town and Country Shopping Center in Tiburon.

Food will be donated by Brice Brothers and proceeds will be used to construct backstops, fences and dugouts for the new Little League field, according to Kenneth E. Rall, general chairman. Robert H. (Bud) Davis and Carl Geissinger are assisting Rall.

Tickets may be obtained at Brice Brothers or from any of the players, managers or coaches in the Strawberry Little League.

DOWN THE ALLEY—Rime and Nancy, a couple of hard workers at Marin's Guide Dogs for the Blind center, felt in need of a little recreation and relaxation. And they read in their Independent-Journal that the San Rafael Lions Club was sponsoring a "Guide Dogs Bowling Tournament." So they decided to try their hands—or paws—in the event at the Country Club Bowl in San Rafael. Here Rime takes aim at the pins while Nancy looks around and wonders where all the other guide dogs are. Seems that only human beings were bowling at the time.

BOWLING IN MARIN

Guide Dog Tourney Still Going Strong

The open handicap bowling benefit tournament for Guide Dogs for the Blind is still going strong at Country Club Bowl in San Rafael.

The San Rafael Lions Club-sponsored contest will continue through Oct. 15 with $1,500 worth of prizes available, including an ocean voyage for two on a luxury liner.

Marinites can bowl from 9 a.m. to midnight daily with a $1 entrance fee in the contest for each three game series. Handicaps are figured by taking two thirds of the difference between one's average and 200.

All the prizes have been donated by San Rafael merchants with proceeds from entry fees to go to the Guide Dog's for the Blind in Terra Linda.

Bill Faulk rolled out the high series, 639-268, in the county this past week at Nave lanes. Another spectacular was recorded by Bill Gerton with 625-201, 202, 222. And the next best bowlers in series play were the ladies.

Patty Weddell, bowling in the 725 Women's Scratch Bowling League at Country Club Bowl slammed out a magnificent 593-195, 174, 224 series. At Nave Dottie Rosso stacked up a commendable 578-222, and in the Women Classic at the same alley, Jackie New-some racked a 555-224. ANOTHER STRIKE—With a smirk of satisfaction, Nancy tabulates her score. Seems she was already ahead of Rime and had just chalked up another strike. Whether Nancy emerges as the tournament winner remains to be seen. The tourney will continue at Country Club Bowl through Oct. 15 with $1,500 worth of prizes at stake. It's open to all bowlers, two-footed as well as four. And proceeds go to the Guide Dogs program.

Automotive Royalty To Bow Sunday

3 Groups To Co-Host Event

Royalty of the automotive world will make its bow Sunday, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. when the Concours D'Elegance convenes at Forest Meadows on the Dominican College campus under the sponsorship of Catholic Social Service of Marin County, in cooperation with the Sports Car Club of America, San Francisco Region and the Horseless Carriage Club of America, San Rafael Region.

Reminiscent of the world's romantic past is one particular group of cars, locally owned, which will be shown at the Concours. One of these is the right-drive 1936 Rolls Royce which was custom made for the extremely tall Duke of Kent. This car was exhibited at the Automobile Show in San Francisco as a starred display.

1938 MERCEDES
Another with dramatic history is the 1938 Mercedes, also shown above. This was the "command car" used by Gen. Erwin Rommel during his North Africa campaign with the German Afrika Korps.

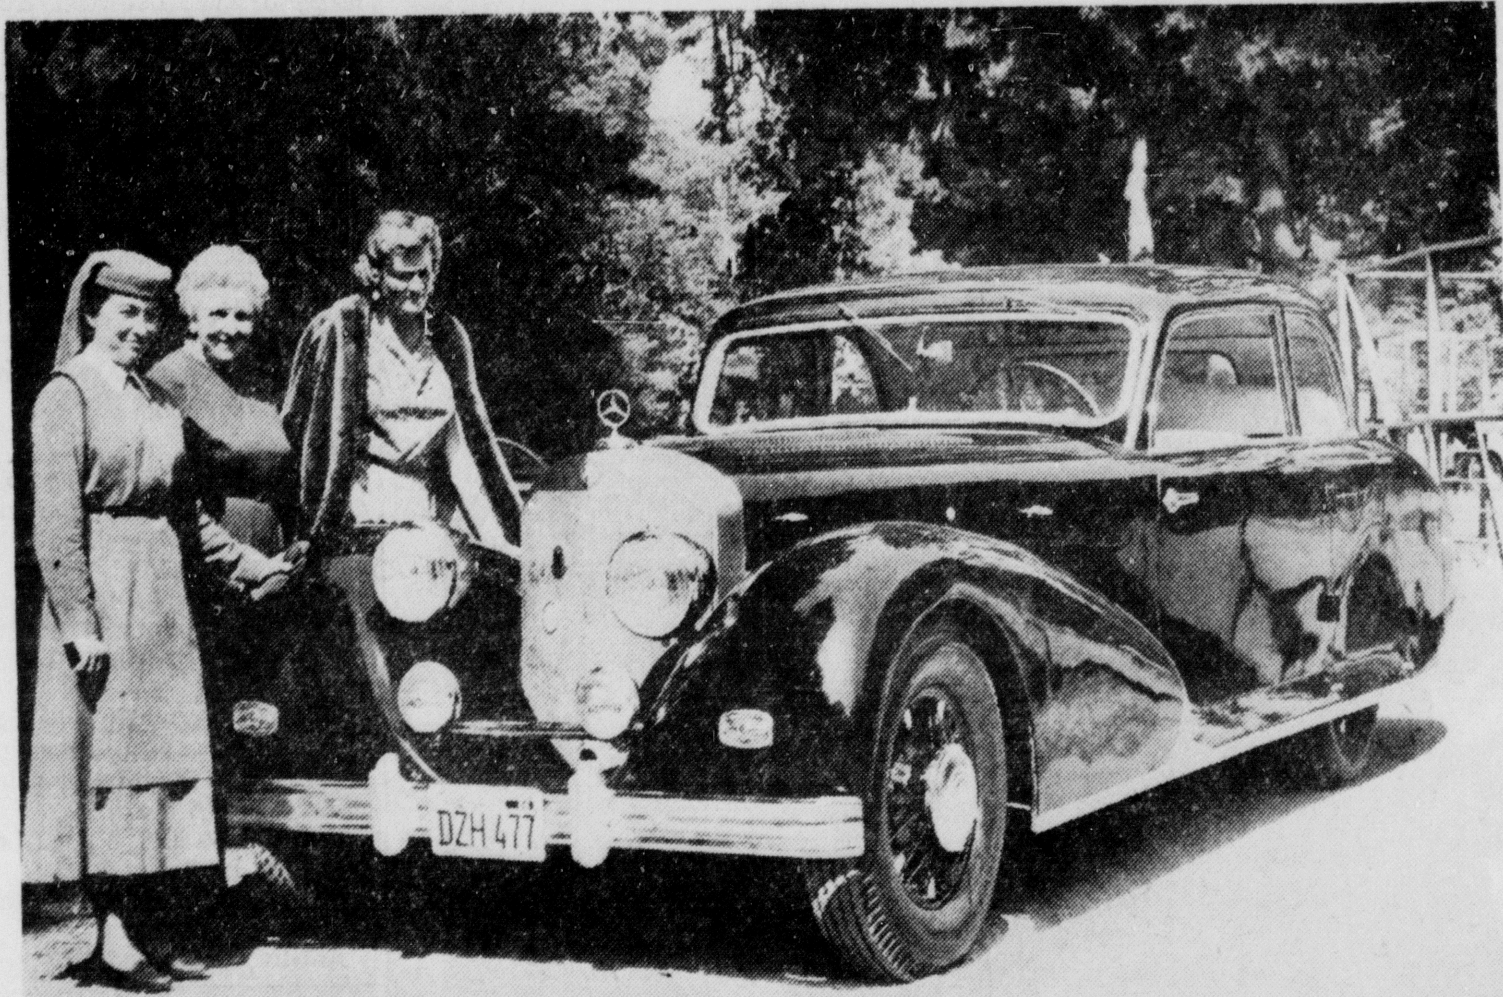

Guests will see, too, the 1924 Hispano-Suiza which was owned by the father of Prince Rainier of Monaco. This, a light green convertible sedan, is about 24 feet long, the longest car in the collection.

Strictly a "show" car will be the 1934 Alfa Romeo, a shining red sportster which placed third in the Mille Miglia in Brescia, Italy, over winding Alpine roads. It has taken a number of prizes at Concours events.

Also to be displayed is a 1938 Bugatti black coupe, one of the rarest of the classic cars, a real collector's item and one of the very few such left in the world. This car, which belonged to an entertainer in Paris, was impounded by the Nazis at the start of the second World War and still has the impoundment stamp upon it.

ONE FACET
The glamour of these automotive aristocrats provides just one facet of the Concours, proceeds of which will assist the Catholic Social Service agency in meeting needs not covered by its United Crusade budget.

Other displays will include horseless carriages, unique and vintage cars, hot rods and customs, classics and sleek, shining sports cars and imports, so that the appeal will be to all age groups and interests.

Many families are planning picnics on the lawn. Entertainment will include bagpipers, an accordionist, dancers and a band, to provide fun for all the family.

In this field day of automotive history, cars will be judged and trophies awarded in over 20 classes, including the six major categories.

Fishy Business Caters To Tastes Of Little Woman

CHICAGO (UPI) — Those new orange, pink and baby blue fishing rods are for women, who now buy a sizable portion of all the fishing tackle sold.

Figures released at the Associated Fishing Tackle Manufacturers convention showed women bought most of the 28 per cent more tackle sold in the past two years.

The gay-colored fishing rods were designed by a Hastings, Mich., manufacturer. They were so successful in capturing the female market that several other manufacturers have been prettying up their tackle. Their offerings, shown at the convention, included rods with better curves, lighter equipment and bait buckets in decorator colors.

Passano-Painter Nuptials

St. Columba's Episcopal Church in Inverness was the setting yesterday for the wedding of Brooke Painter of Ross and Peter Mason Passano of Sausalito.

The Rev. Francis Reed officiated for the 3 o'clock single ring ceremony in the presence of members of the family.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Painter of Ross.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white embroidered pique.

The bride was graduated from Dominican Convent and Stanford University. John H. Painter Jr. of Stockton is her brother.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Grace Dyer Passano of Staten Island, N.Y., and L. Magruder Passano of New Gloucester, Me., was graduated from the Kent School in Connecticut and Colgate University. His fraternity is Delta Kappa Epsilon.

He is the brother of Mrs. Harold Graves of San Francisco, Dr. Magruder Passano III of New Haven, Conn., and Capt. John Dyer Passano with the meeting at Purdue meant a renewal of friendship with some of these women leaders of the ecumenical church, following the visitation program.

WEST VIRGINIAN

fornia. After graduation from the University of California at Los Angeles, she studied at San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, and graduated with a master's degree in Christian Education.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Parties Honor Clinton Lewises, Leaving Again For Long Tour

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

The Clinton Lewises of Bayside Acres, who have not been home a year from 12 months of traveling, will be off again Oct. 8 for a world tour and for them many parties are being given. Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. James I. Lewis of San Francisco (no relation) gave them a foretaste of the Orient at a delightful Japanese dinner at Mingei-Ya in San Francisco.

Today Mrs. Edward Day of Bayside Acres gave a luncheon for Louise Lewis. Among the guests were Mesdames Geneva Rapuano, Robert Kitchak and Leo Diner. Clinton and Louise will have dinner with the Rupert Kempfs of Sausalito who are making the same trip they are. Tonight Mrs. William Dittman (Liveria Sawyer) is giving a dinner at Sabella's for the Lewises. Wednesday they will travel to San Francisco for the dinner to be hosted by the Alfred Besemans, who lived in Japan. Friday night Louise's sister, Mrs. George Norgard of San Francisco, will be hostess at a dinner for the travelers and Sunday the Hugh Patersons of San Rafael will give a dinner for Louise and Clinton.

The Lewises have not been in the Orient before so they will visit it on the first part of this trip which will be mostly by air. They are going to Japan, Hong Kong, Bangkok, India and Iran. They are excited at plans for their stay in Teheran where they will be guests of the family of Farhad Moezzi, member of the art department of San Rafael High School. They will see Persian life and culture at first hand during their stay of several days. They will fly to Israel and Greece. They visited the Arab countries before so they'll skip them now. They have friends in most of the large European cities and are looking forward to seeing them again. They'll spend some time in Italy, go to Vienna, Munich, Paris, London, Copenhagen and Stockholm, taking the polar route home from there. The Lewises were in Europe in 1952-53 and in 1960.

FROM EUROPE where she has been traveling since the first of June, Mrs. Charles P. Carruthers of Kent Woodlands will return Saturday. She is now in the British Isles and will see her late husband's relatives in Scotland. She had a wonderful visit with her daughter, Elizabeth, her son-in-law, Dr. Richard Dakin, who is stationed by the Army in Stuttgart, Germany, and their children. With Diane, the Dakins' oldest daughter, Mrs. Carruthers traveled through Switzerland. She also toured Austria, Italy and France and visited the wine country with the Dakins.

Mrs. Carruthers' son, Hugh, his wife and children, Joan and Scott, spent last weekend in the south where they visited his other sister, Mrs. Malcolm Rorty (Nancy Carruthers) and her family at their home in Palos Verdes. The Carruthers also went to Disneyland.

MEZZO SOPRANO Margaret Lee of Mill Valley is appearing in the chorus in all but three of the operas being presented in the current San Francisco opera season.

"Turandot" by Puccini, she reports, is her favorite of all the operas for several reasons. First is that it is the most exciting for chorus members because the chorus has an important role in the opera. And though it was the most difficult to learn, she says, she considers it the most beautiful musically.

At the end of the season in San Francisco Miss Lee will go with the company for a three weeks' engagement in Los Angeles.

She studies in Mill Valley with Mme. Bella Resek.

NEW RESIDENTS of San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Lorry di Grazia and their two sons, Peter and Derek. The di Grazias sold their home in Kent Woodlands to the Thomas Marshalls of San Francisco, who have two children, David and Pamela. The di Grazias are living on Green Street in the house they bought from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Moore Jr.

To welcome the di Grazias, Mr. and Mrs. Niels T. Larsen, of San Francisco, are giving a cocktail party Oct. 11.

Frenchwoman Asks Why U.S. Schools Vary With Region

"Why are American schools so different?" a mother asks. "I was raised in France. Wherever I moved I found schools were the same. Over here they're sure to be different. We used to live in a big American city. Our children got straight 'reading-riting-rithme-tic.' Then we moved into a suburb. Now they also get art, French and dancing lessons. Would it be better for our schools to be alike?"

I don't think so. You've spotted the chief difference between American and European education. In France, schools are controlled from the top. A cabinet officer issues an edict. Thousands of teachers obey him. Over here schools are run from the bottom. States set the minimum limits. But schools go beyond them. No one person dictates. Our arrangement is safer. The reason I'm worried about federal aid for American schools is that it could lead to one man control.

Human factors make for variation in any country. The one who heads a school is important. Does a principal really love children? Is he bright and enthusiastic? Is he fair? Then he has a happy, successful school. His teachers outdo themselves. Is he lazy? Crabby? Suspicious? Then his school languishes.

Teachers matter even more. If your child gets a bad teacher, she makes very little progress. School is a burden. She may develop nervous symptoms. Stammering, twitching or bedwetting. If she gets a good teacher, she flourishes. God bless good teachers and principals all over the world!

(Q) "My son is being taught French at school. He is in the second grade. He doesn't even speak English well. What's the point in starting French so soon?" W.L.

(A) Most small children learn foreign languages easily. Many older ones don't. I have followed several experiments. They all point to the primary grades as the best time to start foreign language instruction.

Bookish Advice On Promoting School Libraries

Here are some of the ways the American Association of School Librarians says citizens can promote school libraries:

—Discuss the school library situation with the superintendent of schools and the board of education. Is there a library in each elementary, junior and senior high school in your town?

—If there is a librarian employed by the school district, urge her to survey the existing facilities in the schools.

—If there is no librarian employed by the school district, seek help from the state school library supervision (available in 27 states only) or from the state, county or local public librarian.

—Urge the appointment of a qualified school librarian to serve as the supervisor or coordinator of the district-wide program.

—Urge successful teachers who are interested in books and the curriculum and who work well with children and other teachers, to enroll in school library courses in summer school as a first step toward becoming professional librarians. Subsidize the program if the need is acute.

Safety, Value Are Sought By Consumer

Third in a series on food additives and packaging and on cholesterol level and diet, nation meeting of the Nutrition Committee of the Marin Council of Community Services held in San Rafael.

By BARBARA ROSMER

When you take a package from a supermarket shelf you want to know beyond doubt that it cannot harm you and that you are getting what you pay for. Recently there has been much concern in print and on the air about food additives and about products in misleading or short weight packages.

It is the job of the U. S. Food and Drug Administration to protect the consumer against harm and fraud. That this is a tall order is evident in the statement of McKay McKinnon, director of the local FDA district, when he said that his office has continually lost cases in the courts on deceptive packaging and also that they cannot do direct research on chemical tolerances to humans for obvious reasons. Animals must be used for tests, and assumptions are made from those.

As to chemical additives, Mr. McKinnon, whose administration is responsible to the U.S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare, explained how the law works.

SAFE AMOUNTS

In 1954 legislation was passed that okayed use of pesticides by food growers as long as they leave no residue or leave residue only in amounts determined "safe" by the administration. This Act also controlled chemical additives unless amounts used were known to be safe.

In 1958, the Food Additives

Amendment stated specifically that there could be no use of any chemical as an additive unless generally recognized as safe or meets the regulation that sets the figure as safe for humans.

How is the "safe" figure determined? McKinnon said that they use animals to test reaction to an additive. Then they assume that "man is 10 times as tender and then we divide the amount by 10 again, so we consider human tolerance of a chemical additive is 100th of the greatest amount that does not cause harm to a test animal."

Packages must contain the following information: name of product, net contents (weight, count or volume); name and address of packer, manufacturer or distributor; ingredients in descending order of prominence determined by their weight.

SHORT WEIGHT

McKinnon said that recently his office had discovered in a survey that net weight was being shorted in certain brands of food packages. They sent back the illegal packages (those which weighed less than claimed on the label) and the companies rectified the error.

McKinnon said that ordinary bread preservatives and such things as meat tenderizer are completely harmless to the human.

What can the consumer do to be sure he or she is safe and getting the dollar's worth? Violations in packaging may be reported to McKinnon's office, the district office of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration in San Francisco. His office, too, can supply information on food additives.

JOHN ROBERT POWERS
1000 Fifth Ave., San Rafael
GL 3-2272

Dear Miss or Mrs. Marinite,

Has anyone assumed the responsibility of telling you about the wonderful things that are happening in the John Robert Powers school of self improvement? If not, I would like to assume that responsibility. Did you know that when Mr. Powers started his first school 38 years ago his primary interest was you? Yes, you are the reason that John Robert Powers Schools are training teenagers, homemakers, and career women to become lovely ladies that radiate beauty, poise, and self assurance. The reason is simple, American women have spent billions of dollars on diets, exercise equipment, cosmetics for face and hair, clothes, jewelry and lingerie. Why? She is seeking feminine loveliness. When in truth, what is she really doing? She is becoming a carbon copy of other women. Is this what you want to do? Would you like to know how to be lovelier than you ever thought possible? There are only six steps to feminine loveliness and here they are:

1. learn how to apply the minimum amount of cosmetics to point up the beautiful and interesting parts of your face.
2. determine the ideal measurements for your figure, taking into account your height and bone structure. Then through a natural diet and simple exercise achieve your ideal figure.
3. have an expert instruct you in the proper lines and colors that will do the most for your figure, coloring, and personality so that your wardrobe is planned for you alone.
4. be certain that you are always poised in any group of people or circumstances. This means you must be able to stand, walk, sit (and get in and out of the modern automobile) with poise and grace.
5. know the beautiful you. In other words study your own personality until you know yourself as others see you, and be able to take advantage of all the really wonderful qualities of your own personality.
6. develop a smooth, well modulated voice that has the ability to express your inner feelings and thoughts, because your voice is the only way you have of releasing your inner beauty.

Now you have the complete picture point by point. If it sounds difficult to you, it is only because you do not know how easy Mr. Powers has made it for you to show the world how lovely you really are. You may say that it's impossible to achieve all these things without individual and personal instruction, and I will say you are entirely correct, because that is the reason behind Mr. Powers success. He has said many times that he has never met two women who were exactly alike, so why do they all put on the same mask every morning and wear the same clothing? Each of you has beautiful and attractive qualities, so come out of the crowd you are in, and become the lovely, beautiful individual that you really are.

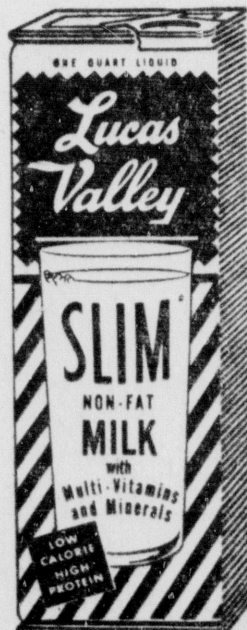

Call today or better yet, call right now and make an appointment for a free personal analysis. You will be surprised how easy and inexpensive Mr. Powers has made it for you.

Cordially,

Frank Allen
Director

'Gentleness, Femininity Are Traits Applauded In Women'

By JOY MILLER
NEW YORK (AP)—The mayor pro tem of Wilmington, N.C., shares an opinion widely held in the South—and probably the North too—that women should be gentle and feminine.

"That's why Southern girls win the Miss America contest. They are soft and womanly, with good, old-fashioned Southern charm," says the city official. "Women should never compete in a man's world."

Wilmington's mayor pro tem is a shapely brunette mother of two and youthful-looking grandmother of one, Hannah Block. And when Mrs. Block says women shouldn't compete with men, she means it with wide hazel-eyed sincerity.

The fact she beat a dozen men to be elected the first woman on the city council doesn't mean she was competitive about it. It was just something that had to be done.

NO POLITICIAN
"I'm not a politician," she protested in her soft voice. "You can be interested in good government and remain feminine."

"I've got my husband behind me. If I have any problems I talk them over with him."

Industrialist Charles M. Block has seen his Virginia-born wife active in community work since he brought her to Wilmington as a bride 26 years ago.

She explains "socializing is very nice but I have a philosophy a day shouldn't go by without my doing something constructive. I hope I'm not considered a do-gooder. Let's put it this way: when you're doing for others, you're doing for yourself as well."

Besides raising her children—a teen-age girl and a son who is a first lieutenant in the Army stationed at Ft. Bragg, Mrs. Block has a hobby of running a one-woman charm school.

MISS AMERICA
The girls live in her home and learn everything from the social graces to good grooming and how to treat people diplomatically. She wouldn't think of charging them.

Annually, one of the girls is the State entrant in the Miss America contest, and this year Mrs. Block had a winner in Maria Beale Fletcher.

"I tell my girls: real happiness is in doing what you're put on earth for, to marry and have children. A career is fine as a stopgap between school and finding the right man to marry. And, of course, they should take an interest in their community and city government when they have free time."

Sally McCarthy Engaged To Wed

Col. and Mrs. Walter W. McCarthy Jr. of Honolulu have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sally Ann, to Lt. (j.g.) Gerald William Seelman, U. S. Coast Guard.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of the Edwin S. Halls of Ross and of Mrs. Bertram DeHaven of San Rafael and Sacramento. Sally attended Dunbarton College of Holy Cross and is now a senior at the University of Hawaii. While Colonel McCarthy was stationed at the Presidio of San Francisco, she attended St. Anselm's School and Marin Catholic High School.

Lieutenant Seelman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charles Seelman of Oak Park, Ill. He is a graduate of the United States Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn. He is presently attending school at Treasure Island.

The McCarthy family visited in Ross and San Rafael for several weeks this summer while Sally flew to Chicago to visit the Seelman family.

Wedding plans are being made for next autumn.

No Bones About Butcher Market Of The Future

CHICAGO (AP)—The butcher shop of the future may stock only boneless meat and label meat cuts according to the correct cooking method.

Max O. Cullen, assistant general manager of the National Live Stock Exposition, foresees this development as a way to eliminate the confusion that now surrounds the names of meat cuts.

Cullen cited just one example of the confusion. "The cut known as the K.C. steak in Kansas City is called a top loin steak in Chicago and is known by 10 or 12 other names across the country," he said.

"In this day and time when people move halfway across the country on ten days' notice, this can make it most confusing to buy meat," Cullen said. "Ultimately the real method of standardization of meat cuts will have to be on the basis of how to cook them." Under this plan, he explained, housewives would have such choices as ground beef (or pork or lamb) or meat for stewing, roasting, braising or broiling.

Kirkland-Silva Rite Held In Sausalito

Katherine Marie Silva and George Edward Kirkland, both of Mill Valley, exchanged nuptial vows Sunday afternoon, Sept. 24, in a 2 o'clock ceremony at the Star of the Sea Church in Sausalito.

The double ring rites attended by more than 300 guests were performed by the Rev. Henry O'Flynn.

When the bride was given in marriage by her father, Manuel E. Silva of Tennessee Valley, she was wearing a full length white taffeta gown with full skirt and chapel train.

Her attendants were Barbara Andino of Mill Valley, maid of honor; the bride's cousins, Sandra Simas of Santa Clara and Jean Silva of Petaluma, bridesmaids; and the bride's sister, Judith Silva, and the bridegroom's sister, Katherine Kirkland, junior bridesmaids.

They were gowned identically in street length frocks of emerald green peau de soie fashioned with criss-cross fronts and bell skirts.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mrs. Frank Kirkland of Mill Valley and the late Mr. Kirkland, was his brother, Frank S. Kirkland of Mill Valley. Showing guests to their seats were the bride's brother, Ernest Silva of Mill Valley, Patrick Foley of San Francisco, Sterling Searcy of Petaluma and the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Raymond Chatterman of Novato.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the IDESST Hall in Sausalito. Connie Klenk of Mill Valley was in charge of the guestbook.

After a week's honeymoon at an undisclosed destination the young couple will be at home to friends at 531 Browning Street, Tamalpais Valley.

The new Mrs. Kirkland was graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended San Francisco State College for one year. She is employed in the office at Ross General Hospital. Her grandmother is Mrs. Lena Pimentel of Novato.

The bridegroom, also a Tamalpais High School graduate, is employed by a stock brokerage firm in San Francisco.

To Lull Cry Baby

Invented by a doctor and tested in clinics and nurseries, a new noise maker lulls a crying baby to sleep in much the way that rocking, cuddling and crooning do. The noise box emits a tonal vibration believed by many physicians to be similar to that of parental environment. It's something like the humming sound of circulation through the maternal organs.

YOUR HOUSEHOLD

Flavoring, Seasoning May Intensify In Frozen Foods

For more effective home freezing, consider these suggestions from Bette Schaffner, University of Illinois home economist:

Avoid freezing foods flavored with cloves, green pepper, garlic, pimento and sage. These flavors intensify when frozen.

Foods seasoned with onions are equally disappointing when frozen, since freezing weakens the flavor of onions.

Frozen cooked meat tends to have a warmed-up flavor when reheated. For better flavor, freeze the raw meat and cook after thawing.

Potatoes frozen in chunks become mushy when thawed. It is advisable to add fresh potatoes to frozen stew or other mixtures when preparing to serve.

When preparing a casserole containing vegetables to be frozen, undercook slightly to avoid overcooking the vegetables in the finished dish.

Frozen white sauce thickened with flour or cornstarch tends to separate when thawed, so freeze only the meat and broth and prepare the sauce just before serving.

Custard-type pie fillings have a poor consistency after freezing.

For safety's sake, never try to freeze a stuffed turkey. The stuffing may spoil before the turkey is thoroughly frozen.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 26, the 269th day of the year with 96 more to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history: In 1789, President George Washington appointed John Jay to be the first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

In 1888, Poet T. S. Eliot was born in St. Louis, Mo.

In 1959, the worst typhoon in Japanese history struck Central Honshu killing 4,464 persons, injuring 9,419. Nine hundred others were missing and one million homeless.

A thought for today: American writer Thornton Wilder said: "For what human ill does not dawn seem to be an alleviation?"

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

You Must Play Very Cautiously If You Want To Assure Contract

It's hard to be satisfied with your contract when an extra trick is practically in your pocket, but a cautious player remembers that it's always brightest just before the lights go out.

West led spades and continued the suit until South ruffed the third round. Declarer succeeded the jack of diamonds successfully, drew three rounds of trumps and led a nother diamond from his hand.

West played the king of diamonds, and South happily played the ace from dummy. It seemed clear that West had started with only two diamonds, which meant that dummy's entire suit would be good. South expected to win five trumps, five diamonds and the ace of clubs.

SMILE FADES: South's happy smile faded when East threw a spade on the second round of diamonds. Now dummy's long suit could not be brought in. South would win only three diamond tricks instead of the five that he had been expecting.

The only chance was to try the clubs in the hope that East had two honors. The finesse of the nine of clubs lost to West's ten, and South went down ingloriously.

If South hadn't been greedy he'd have made his game contract. The correct play is to let West win the second diamond trick with the king. This leaves South with a third diamond, which he can lead to take the rest of dummy's suit.

Give West credit for a fine deceptive play. If West hadn't put up the king of diamonds South might have thought of playing low from the dummy to make sure of his game.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two spades. You are tempted to jump to four spades because of the trump length and side singleton, but you haven't enough playing strength for this leap. Change one of the low hearts to a low club, giving you 5-5-2-1 distribution, and you would risk a shutout response of four spades.

School Obtains Head Collection

STANFORD (UPI)—Stanford University's Natural History Museum has acquired the lifetime accumulation of an American head-hunter.

The late Dr. John C. Brown of Los Gatos was the collector, and his skulls were those of vertebrate animals which he prepared and catalogued for study. Stanford experts valued the collection at approximately $5,500.

Most of the Brown collection consists of skulls of small animals—rats, squirrels, skunks, weasels and foxes, as well as snakes, lizards, fishes, birds and turtles.

Larger specimens include skulls of deer, black bear and an African lioness. The latter bears the mark of the native spear that felled her.

Keep Aspirin From Children

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Aspirin, for all its beneficial effects, is responsible for more cases of accidental poisoning than any other drug, according to a University of California medical professor.

Dr. E. Leong Way, professor of pharmacology and toxicology at the university's medical center in San Francisco, said children are particularly susceptible to aspirin.

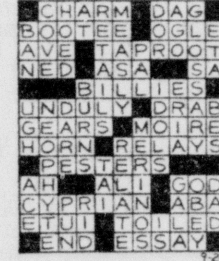

"Many poisonings have resulted because of the ignorance and carelessness of parents who underestimate the dangers of the drug in children," he said.

"The increased incidence of aspirin poisoning also appears to have paralleled the introduction of flavored or candied preparations. However, drug manufacturers are now dispensing the candied tablets in bottles with special caps which are extremely difficult for children to remove."

How Army Benefits Taxpayers

NEW YORK (UPI)—A complete meal instantly prepared by the housewife as easily as a cup of coffee — thanks to the Army. Perishable food preserved without refrigeration — thanks to the Army.

A low-cost helicopter for businessmen, a pill to swallow that will make mosquitoes fly away from you, a quality radio the size of a fountain pen for tomorrow's teen-agers.

All these future goodies and more are promised to consumers — presumably taxpayers all—as an extra dividend for the money being poured into research programs primarily aimed at military defense of the nation from its enemies.

Six generals and two colonels have presented these wonders at a meeting of the Aviation-Space Writers' Association as a reminder to taxpayers that civilians also frequently benefit from the research tied to the defense program, now in the process of being expanded.

A classic example is the aerosol bomb, originally developed to spray insecticides during World War II in the South Pacific, and now used for a long list of civilian goods from shaving soap to whipped cream.

Another is the millions of dollars poured into the development of military jet transports which made economically feasible the jet airliners civilians use today. Civilian benefits still to come include many other wonders.

New plastic tubing developed by the Army Medical Corps can replace torn arteries in arms and legs. Heretofore it had been used only in the trunk of the body. Military scientists also are working on an oral drug to combat malaria and nitrogen-mustard treatment of cancer.

Brig. Gen. Clifton F. von Kann, director of Army aviation, says that because the Army will need more than 3,500 turbine-powered, four-passenger helicopters, the mass production methods should mean that by 1964 civilians can get one for less than $25,000. Businessmen can use them, or they can be used as air taxis, commuter transports or for farm chores.

Maj. Gen. William D. Hamlin of the Army Signal Command, says he has seen research models of high quality radio receivers as small as fountain pens. Small TV and radio sets may come from use of tiny electronic micromodules one-tenth the size of present day miniaturized circuits.

A complete dehydrated meal, ready to eat after being mixed with hot water, is being developed by the Army's Quartermaster Corps. And Brig. Gen. Merrill L. Tribe of the QM Research and Engineering Command, says they are studying a method of preserving perishable food without refrigeration.

The oral insect repellent under development by the Medical Corps is guaranteed to offend only mosquitoes and such and to go unnoticed by other humans — this on the word of Col. Colin Verder Bruegge of the Army Medical and Research Command.

Don't get the idea all those millions of tax dollars are being voted with just civilian comfort in mind. They're being spent for military research into electronics, chemistry, medicine, aviation, meteorology and transportation.

But you never know when some of the research will come up with things that civilians can use, too — like that wartime aerosol device now used to spray hair set on the blondes and redheads and brunettes you know.

Bridge Repairs Prove Costly

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The state of California is doing a $300,000-an-inch repair job on part of the huge San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

The double-deck span is being converted to carry one way traffic on each level. Total cost of the project is $35 million dollars.

The $300,000-an-inch section is in the tunnel through Yerba Buena Island in the middle of the bay where the top deck must be lowered 16 inches to give enough clearance on the top deck for trucks which up to now have been limited to the lower level.

"Good thing we saw these bargains advertised in the I-J last night!"

Your Independent-Journal is YOUR GUIDE FOR SHOPPING!

In newspapers the news of better products and services is as important to today's modern family as that of current events or features concerning home and family, food and fashion, hobbies and health.

For newspapers are the medium by which most people shop. No other medium supplies the variety and detail of advertising by which one may compare prices and benefits and choose the comforts and conveniences that make for a full living standard.

There's much significance in this for local advertisers. For only in the newspaper can people of all age and income groups find the information and inspiration so necessary for good citizenship and for the enjoyment of a better way of life.

And because newspapers gain their friendship and regular readership, newspaper advertisers are provided the most productive medium of communication with customers.

THE MILL CREEK
"The Most Magnificent Address In Marin"
My family is raised and I've sold my home—Now I want trouble-free living and move into this apartment. But it must be very large and gorgeous. A 1-bedroom (900 sq. ft.) or 2-bedroom (1,200 sq. ft.). We want Country-Park-like setting with tall beautiful redwood trees, a live creek meandering through the property. Must be level, and walking distance to the quaint downtown shopping of Mill Valley. • OH DEAR! We have just wished ourselves into THE MILL CREEK. You will see it all. See this unbelievable setting. From $145. Adults. Come feast your eyes this weekend. 191 Throckmorton

Little Cowboys, Cowgirls Here Is Your Chance

Little cowboys and little cowgirls, here is your chance. The 1961 Grand National Rodeo, Horse Show and Livestock Exposition at the Cow Palace wants to have the world's littlest cowboy or cowgirl, the world's best dressed cowboy and cowgirl, the most freckled, the fattest and the tallest cowboy or cowgirl. So write to the Contest Manager of the Cow Palace, San Francisco 24, and put your application on file, for you may be just the one he's looking for, if you're two through ten years old. Judging will take place a little later, but right now is the time to write in with your application. And who knows? Could be you'd win a prize and a chance to see the 1961 Grand National from choice seats—and meet the cowboys first hand, too.

Ross Valley Players Open Season Oct. 12

Two long-time favorites of the Ross Valley Players, Lionel Stott and Jane Watts, will be featured in the group's opening play of the current season, "The Great Sebastians," to be presented at the Barn of the Marin Art and Garden Center, for three weekends beginning Oct. 12.

Stott has starred in such productions as "No Time for Sergeants," "Auntie Mame," and "Teahouse of the August Moon." Mrs. Watts is returning to the Ross stage after an absence of several years. She has been featured in "Rebecca," "Light up the Sky," and several "Gaities" productions.

The two will appear as Rudi and Essie Sebastian in "The Great Sebastians." These are the roles made famous by Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne in the original Broadway production.

"The Great Sebastians" is described by the director, Charles Sayers, as "a play with comedy, drama, suspense and movement." It concerns the adventures of two vaudeville troupers, who are filling an engagement with their famed mindreading act at a theater in Prague. It is 1948 and the country is about to slip behind the Iron Curtain. They become involved—dangerously—in the political intrigue.

Sets for the play were designed by still another "old pro" of the Players, Arthur Edwards.

Others in the big cast: Dr. Ted Schuster will play a peremptory commissar, Harry Mack a nervous theater manager, and Barbara Williamson a determined member of the cultural action committee. Vera Rivers, Marj Ross, Bull Murray, Gaetan Ingrassia, George Shistar, Bud O'Kane, Barbara Morrisey, Maria Michetti, and Ben Borden will appear as high-placed Communist officials and their wives. Norm Buller, Jack Ross and Justin Handlos appear as Communist soldiers.

Tickets and reservations may be obtained at Orrick Travel Bureau, San Anselmo. Three of the nights, however, are being sponsored by Marin organizations with tickets available through Needlework Guild of America (Oct. 12 performance), Lucas Valley Hospital Auxiliary (Oct. 13) and Elks Lodge (Oct. 20).

Parks Law On Novato City Agenda

A revised parks and recreation ordinance will be introduced by the Novato city council at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in the city hall.

At its latest meeting, the council made changes in a proposed ordinance which would create a parks and recreation commission of seven members, two of whom could live outside the city limits.

The future of the Novato Community Clubhouse will be discussed by the council and directors of Novato Community, Inc. The city on Sept. 15 won a decision by Judge Joseph G. Wilson in Marin Superior Court to gain title to the clubhouse per the original by-laws of the club.

Red Cross Gets New Manager

Increase in draft calls will inevitably result in additional demands upon the Red Cross's services to military men and their families, Elias Day said today.
